A YEAR OF

DISCOVERY

AND CHANGE ....

The 1974-75 school year at Ballou has been a school year with a lot of "Knight" cooperation and administrative and faculty understanding. We pulled together and made it work for the better.

Knights, we've been long together, through pleasant and through cloudy weather.
It's hard to part when friends are dear–
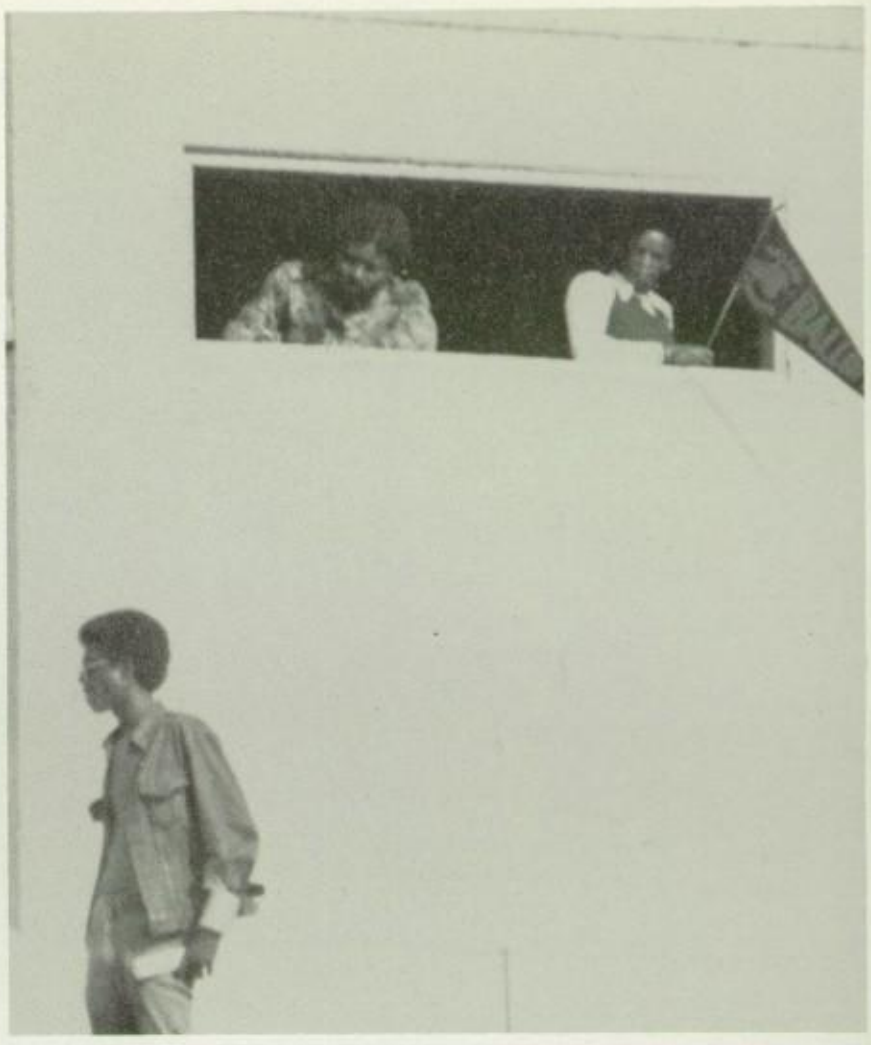
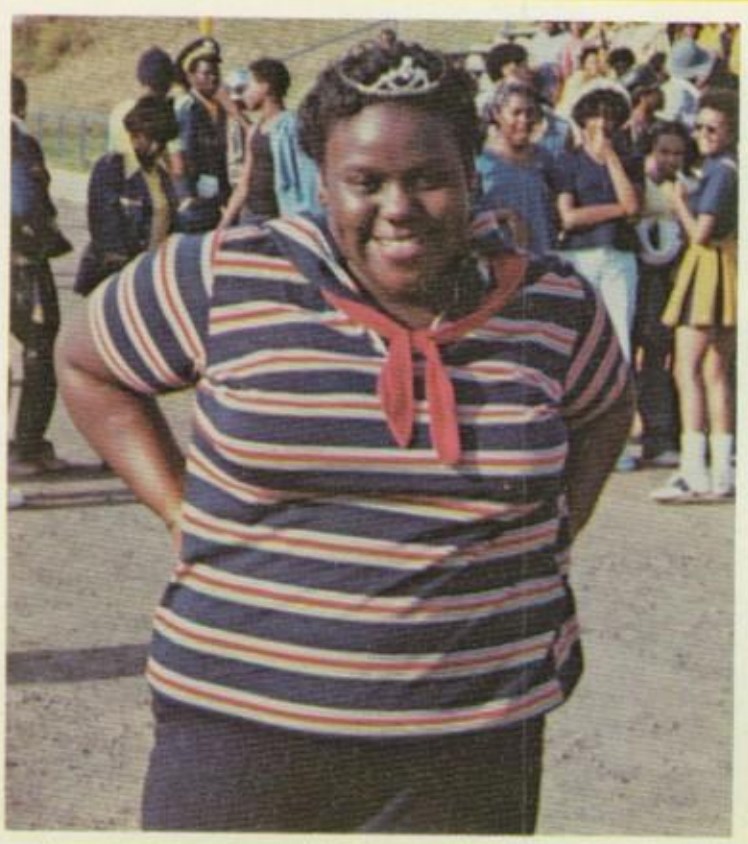
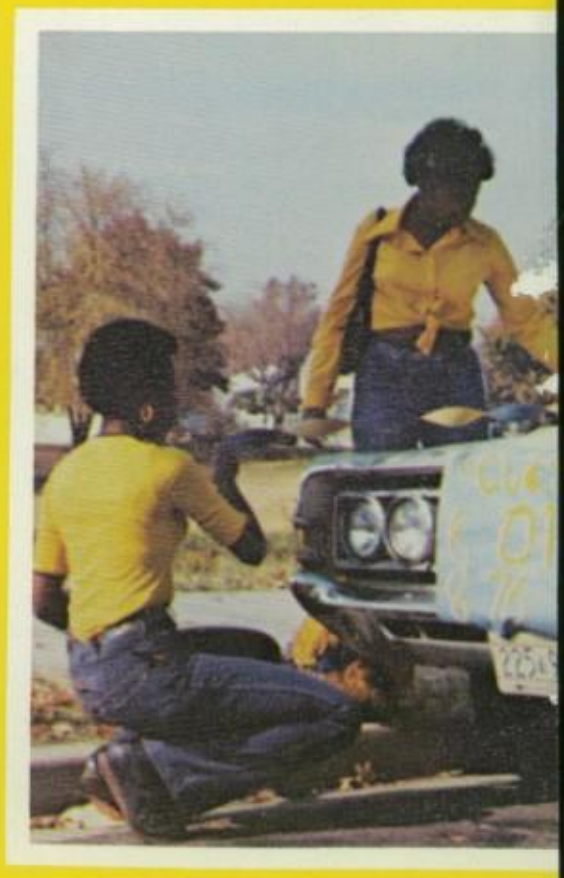
perhaps it will cost a sigh,
a tear.



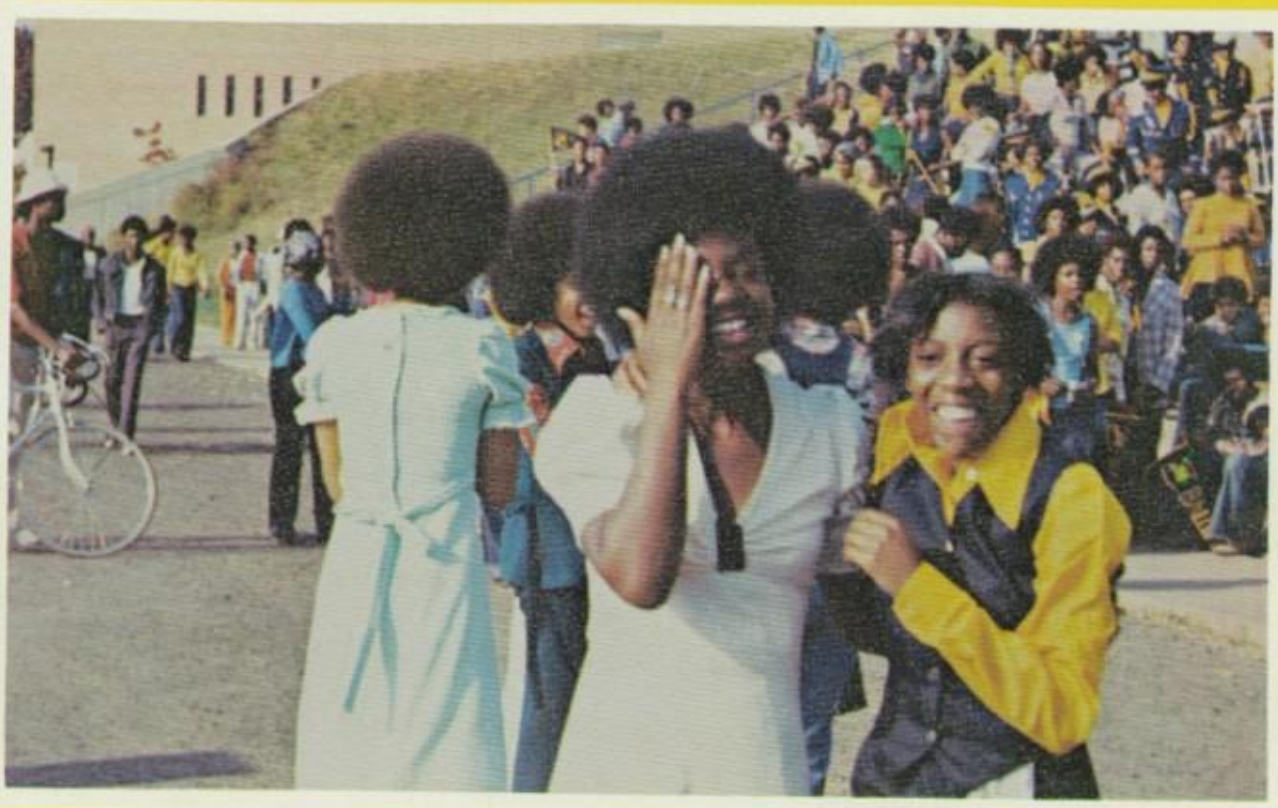
Activities





Ballou's 1974 Homecoming was rough as—!

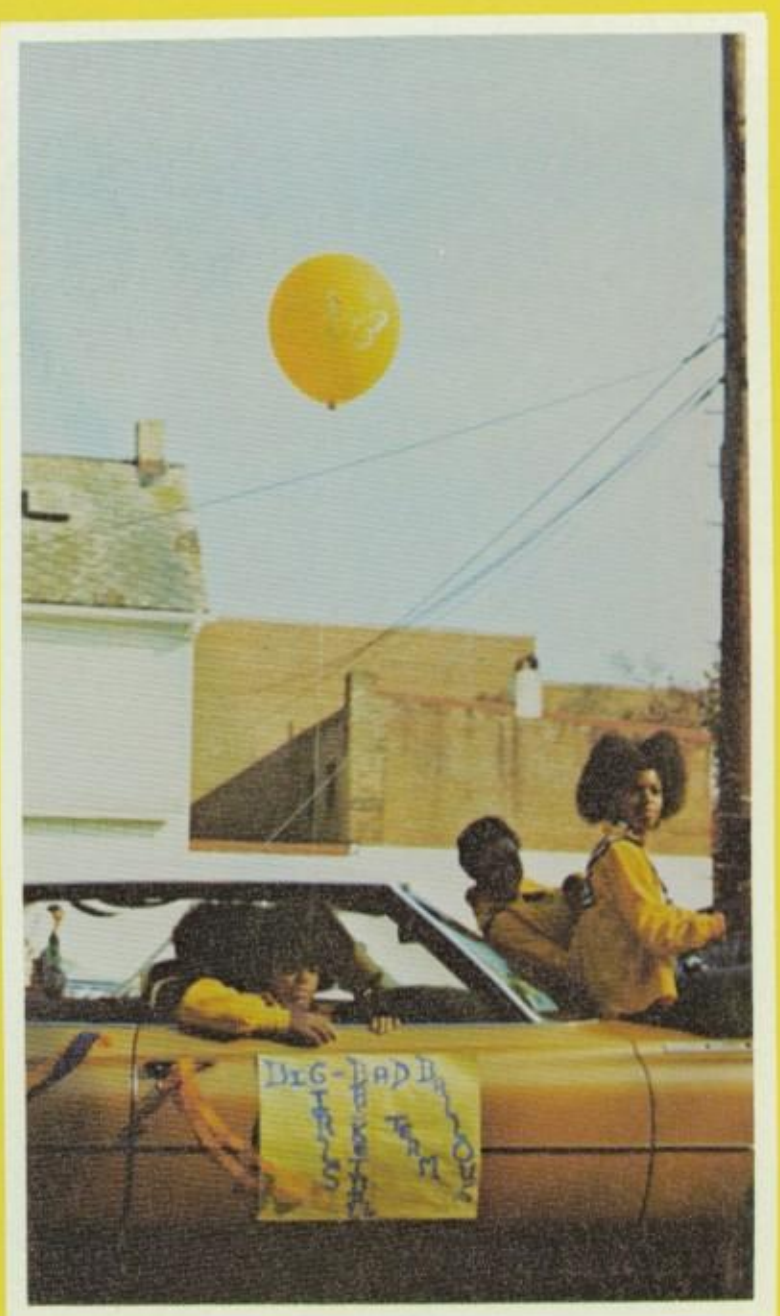
Ballou's homecoming was really rough, bold and bright. This event took a lot of rushing and worrying to make it number one, but it was just that—number one! Everyone pitched in and helped in his own way, even if all he did was decorate a car, throw confetti or just sit around and look.



Pre-victory Activities Set Festive Mood

The parade included the usual bright colors, loud cheers, decorative floats and ebony people really living it up. It was followed by the football team's defeat of Spingarn High.

The homecoming dance featured the Matadors and Thunder and Roses dance bands. Everyone seemed to enjoy himself, but for those who didn't, better luck next year!



It looks as though Karen Hill doesn't know what's going on.

Musical chairs was only one of the many games and activities at this year's Halloween party.

Wonder if Jerome Swain and Paula Croon could convince this young lady to play the game of Pinata.

Myra Lay assists community youngster in dart game.

Who says Halloween is just for children?

Vanita Conner models her "rough" Halloween outfit.

On October 31, the student council presented a party for all the little brothers and sisters in the community. Who says Halloween is just for children? It seems as though the student council members enjoyed themselves very much. Some of their costumes looked better than the children's. Wanda Dickerson, Sharon McGill, Wanda Hinton and Cheryl Jones had fun "tripping" off the children's costumes. There were games and activities such as bobbing for apples, pin the tail on the donkey, dart balloons, and also a dance contest for the big children. A movie topped off the evening's activities. It helped the children settle down. They needed it!

Wonder what scared this chap?

Cast of "A Christmas Story" sang of unity and love as drunks staggered on stage.

Joan Roper and Timothy Harrell sang with real Christmas spirit.

Christmas '74 at Ballou

Timothy and Cynthia argue a point.

The Christmas reindeers gathered around the tree.

Roscoe Freeman (left) escaped from jail and held up Michael Lamb, Kenneth Lytle and Timothy Harrell.

Christmas at Ballou included a flurry of activities from the trimming of the tree in the school lobby to the annual Christmas play. The student council did it again with their "dynamite" Christmas play called "A Christmas Story." The Pom-pom girls and a few of the cheerleaders put together two beautiful dances. The play related the story of Christmas to the birth of a child in jail. Mamie Williams was mistress of ceremony. An academy award should have gone to Roscoe Freeman who played the part of the robber. Songs from the play included "Oh Holy Night" sung by Joan Roper and Timothy Harrell.

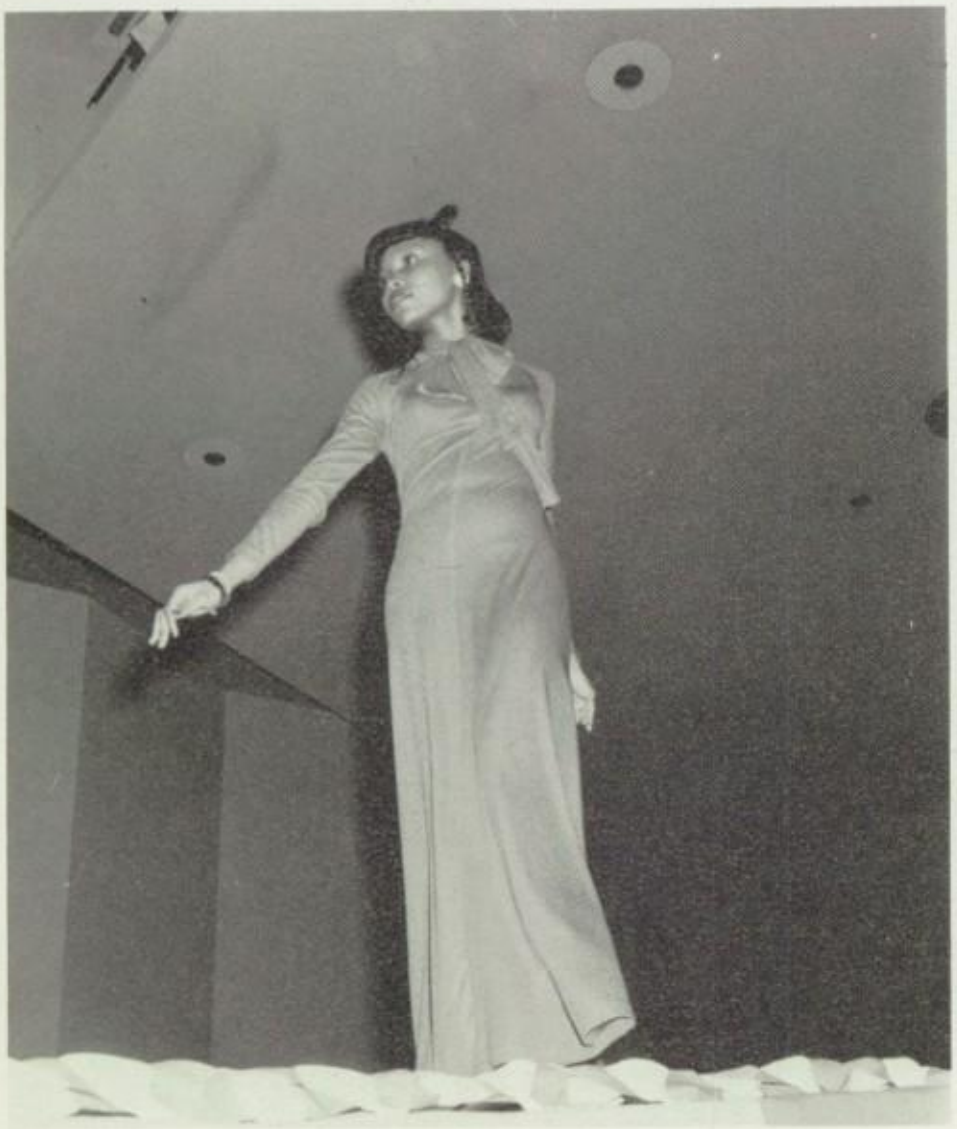
Fashion Show Highlights Spring & Summer of '75

Men's fashions (here shown by Timothy Harrell) were also featured in this year's show.

Ballou's 75 fashion show was well put together. It was based upon the story of Cinderella. The participants in the fashion show worked hard. They stayed hours, and hours after school until they had everything together.

In the fashion show some young ladies modeled their beautiful gowns which they got from Beydas, and Sears, and other ladies modeled their own gowns which they, themselves, had made. Also, we had the young men modeling their suits which they purchased from Mr. Mans.

All of the fashion show was great, but the part that had the young men on the edge of their seats was the bathing suit contest. Miss Ballou was Vanessa Smith. She was chosen among approximately 31 girls who entered the contest representing various organizations at Ballou. There was plenty of singing and dancing. Twanna Franklin sang "The Way We Were" and Theresa Moore sang "I Honestly Love You," while the dancing group did their own thing.



Caffie Jenkins models red jersey evening dress. Caffie also models for Sears Teen Board.

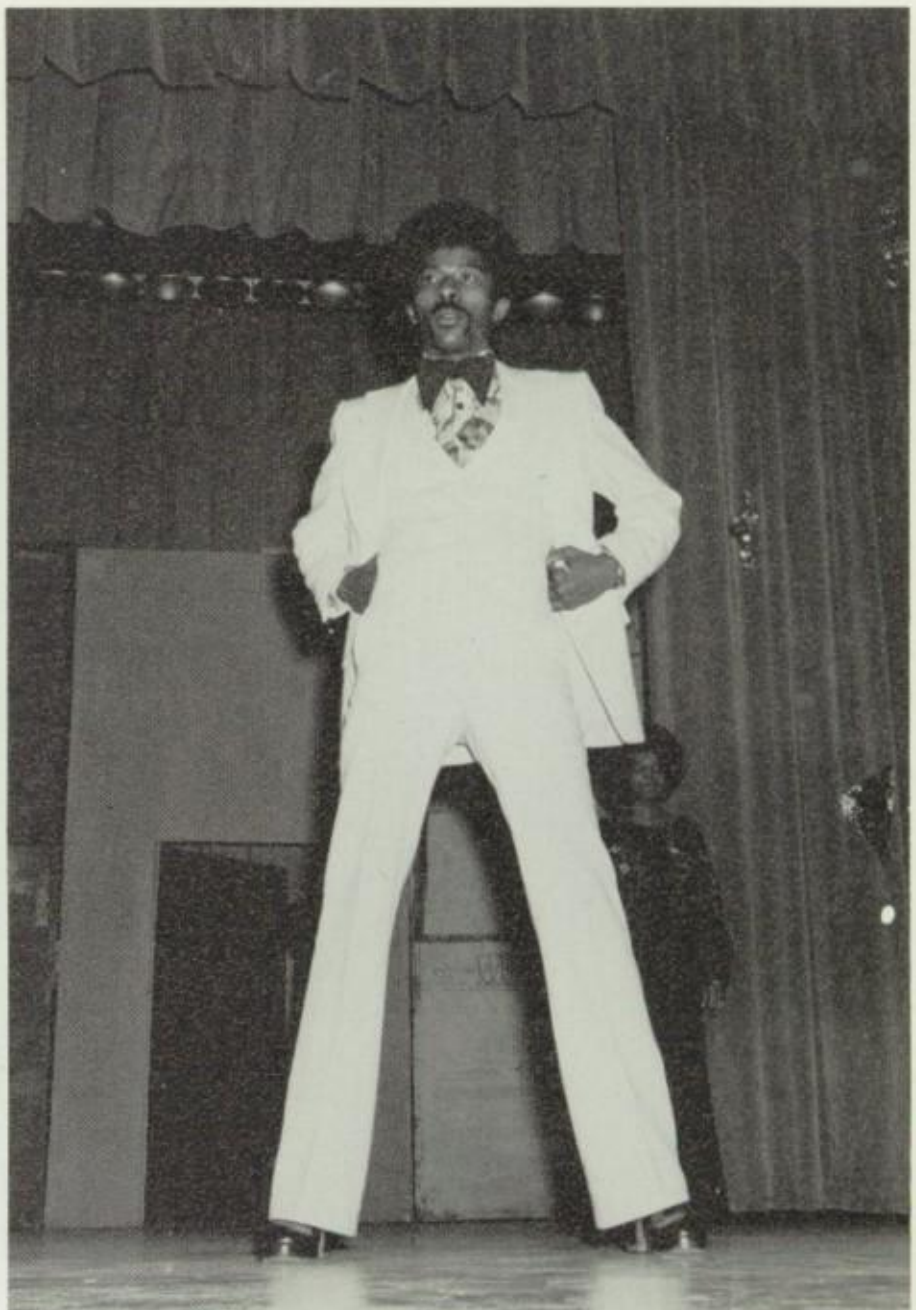
The Cinderella Ball—only one of the many fashion show highlights.

This spring fashion is modeled by Veda Gadson.

Vanita Conner "steppin' pretty."

It's Honey and Spice and Everything Nice!!

Yearbook representative Francine Sterling dazzles eyes in this pink bikini.



The audience goes wild as Mr. Charles Butler, driver's education teacher, steps on the stage. Mrs. Emily Washington stands in the background.

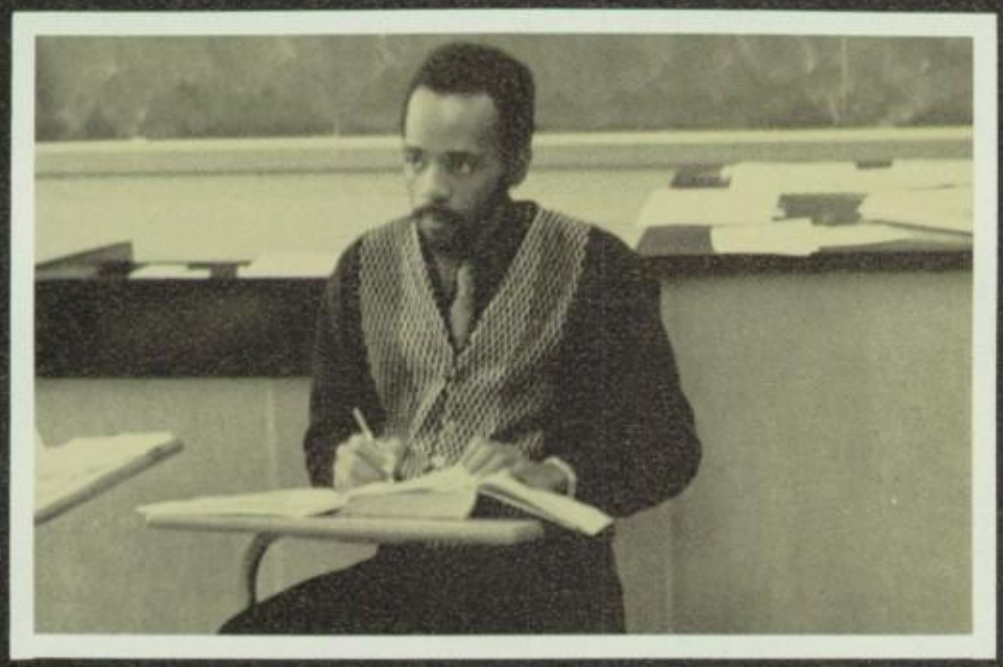
Vanessa Smith is selected as Miss Ballou 1975.

Ballou Hit By Explosion

On Feburay 17, 1975, there was an explosion here at Ballou. The explosion was caused by vandals who somehow entered our school. We were lucky that the school was closed for a holiday and no one was hurt. Fires were set in the biology laboratory, and severe damage was done to the classroom. The library was also damaged, but not severly.

Although classes continued on the following day the explosion caused some inconvenience because some classes had to move to other parts of the building. Also, the library remained closed for several weeks which caused a lot of incovenience to student body.

FACULTY



DR. PIERCE COMPLETES FIRST YEAR AS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

After completing one full year as Ballou's principal, Dr. Pierce feels "optimistic." "At times the year seemed difficult and trying," he said, "but on the whole it has been challenging and stimulating."

He believes the most important thing that the faculty and staff can do is to assist students in becoming adequately independent with skills to either find a job or attain higher education. One of the teacher's goals, he continued, should be to help the student become reasonably effective as citizens by working in the community and the city, for themselves as individuals, as well as their fellowmen.

He anticipates a partial conversion of the school to include mainly the fields of science, mathematics, and computer science, and technology. This will be in addition to the other subjects already offered in the school. This change, will hopefully attract students from throughout the city. He hopes to begin in September, 1975.

Dr. Pierce hopes ultimately to upgrade the school so that the students who graduate from Ballou will be able to compete successfully with students throughout the country. "This means," he said, "getting students to understand the importance of an education as well as increasing the confidence of teachers that students have the ability to achieve on a level with students throughout the country."

We were fortunate at Ballou to have had a guidance department that had an abundant supply of college material. Early each morning, the guidance counselors were busy helping students with problems and anything else which required their assistance. Students seemed to show a great interest in getting all that they could out of life. The guidance staff knew this, and did all that they could to help each and every student who needed help.

Cafeteria Staff Improves Service

Attempts were made to improve cafeteria service during the three lunch periods. However, litter in the cafeteria (picture below) after the lunch period, still proved a persistent problem.

As the year progressed, Ballou Knights began to see the error of their ways. All of the Knights pitched in to change this horrible sight.

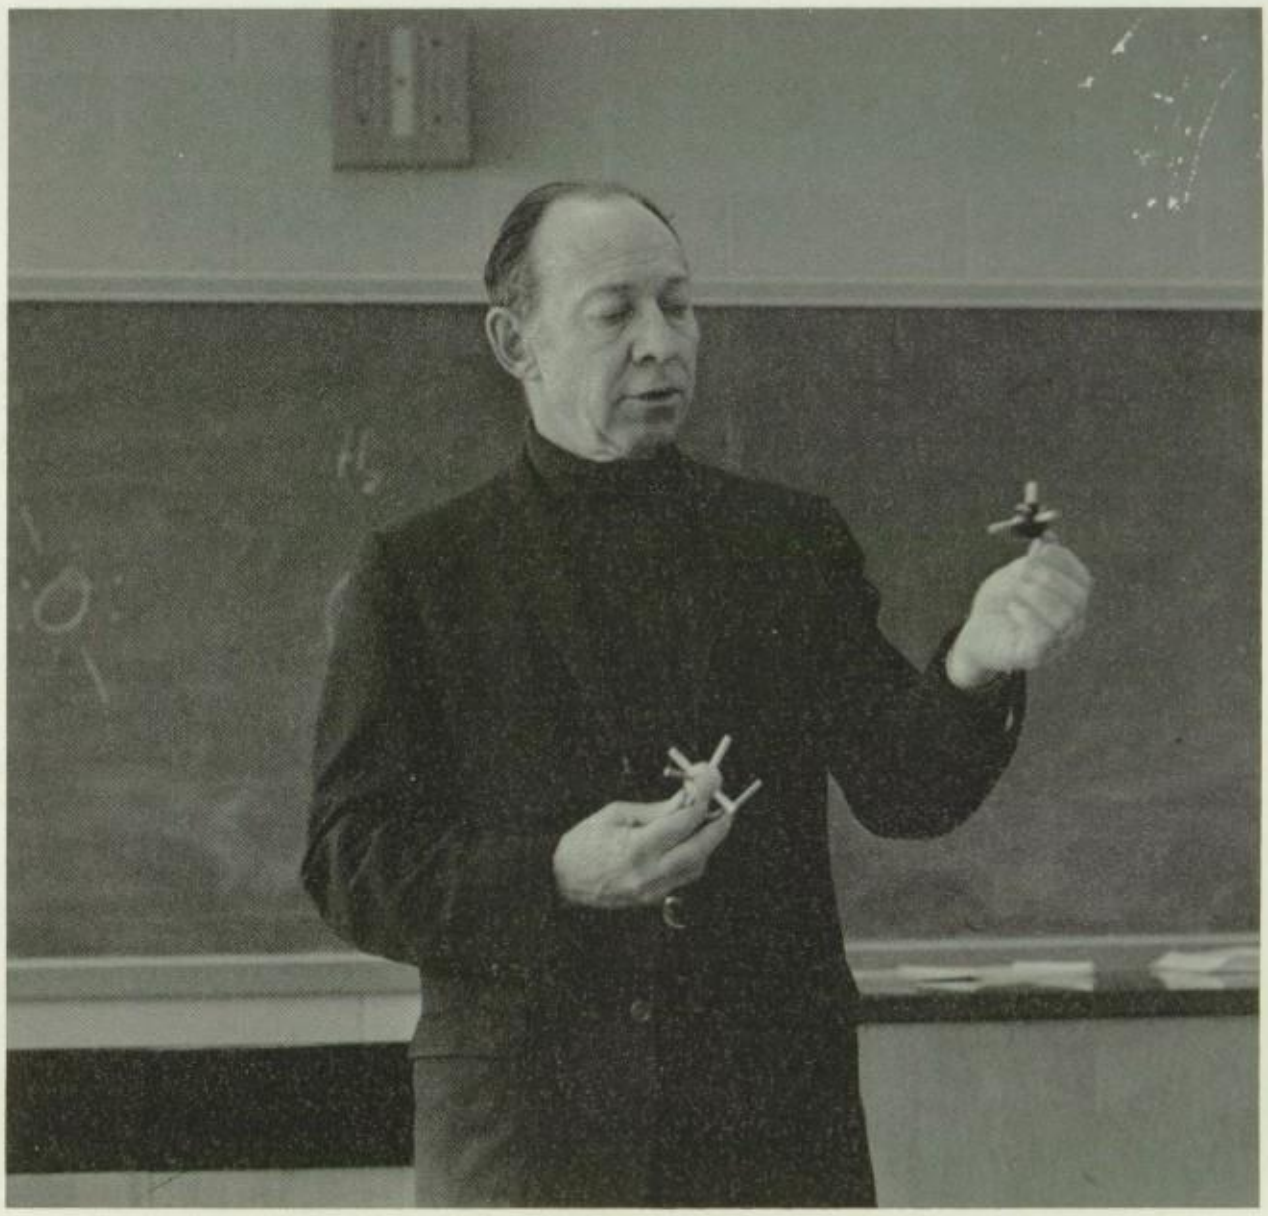
Teacher Strike Averted

The threatened teacher's strike for the 74-75 school year not only affected the Ballou family, but also the other schools in the Washington, D.C. area. The teachers were refusing to have to work an extra 45 minutes without pay.

Besides having to work an extra 45 minutes, the teachers also complained about lack of funds, supplies, and security for Ballou. The teachers felt that if they had to work longer with no increase in pay, they should have better facilities and funds to work with during the regular school year.



Dr. Carroll finds teaching a great experience.

Academics

Ballou To Become A Math Science School

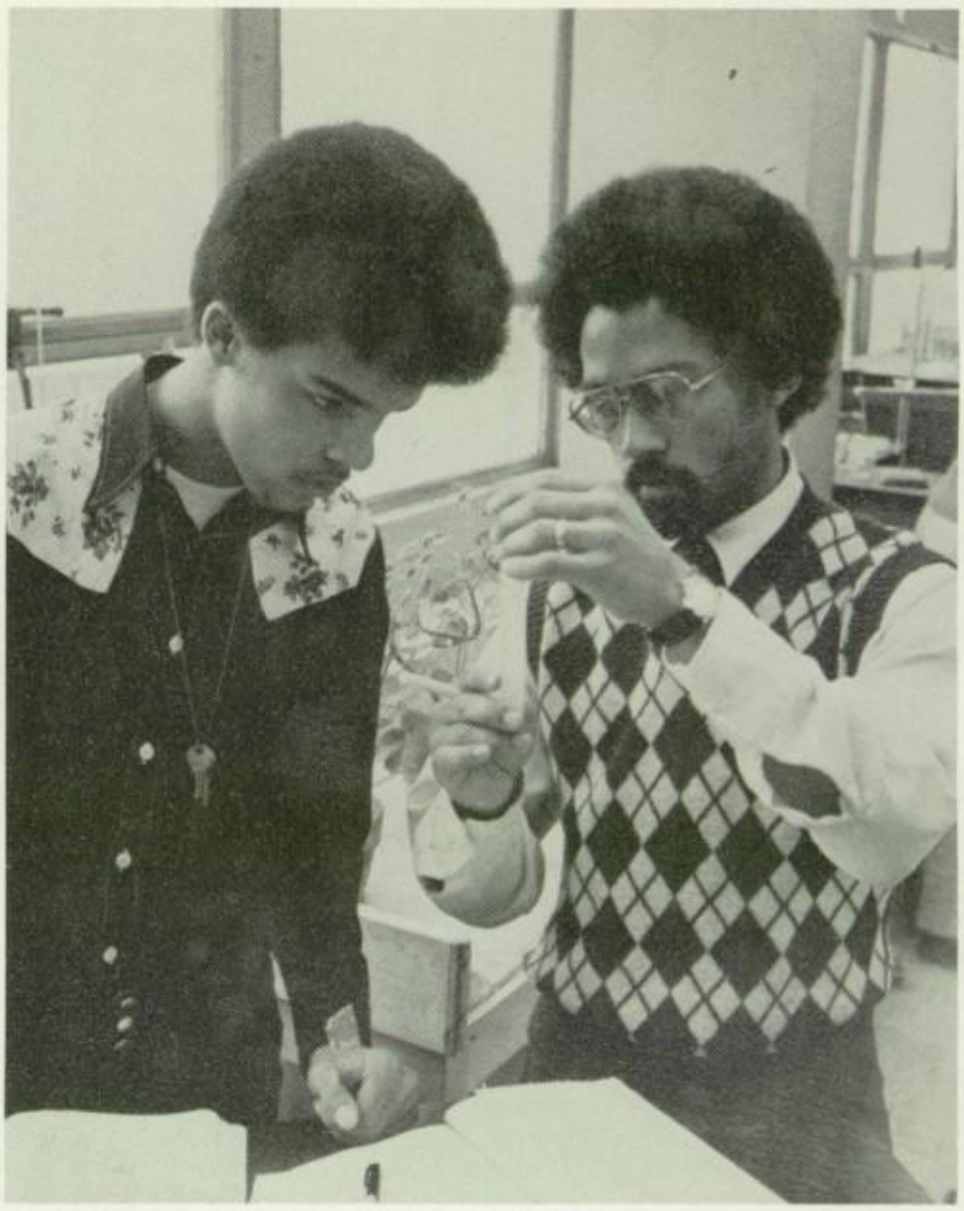
Ballou Senior High will become a math-science school in September of 1975 because it is felt that there is a need for a specialized program for students who show great interest and potential in the fields of science and mathematics.

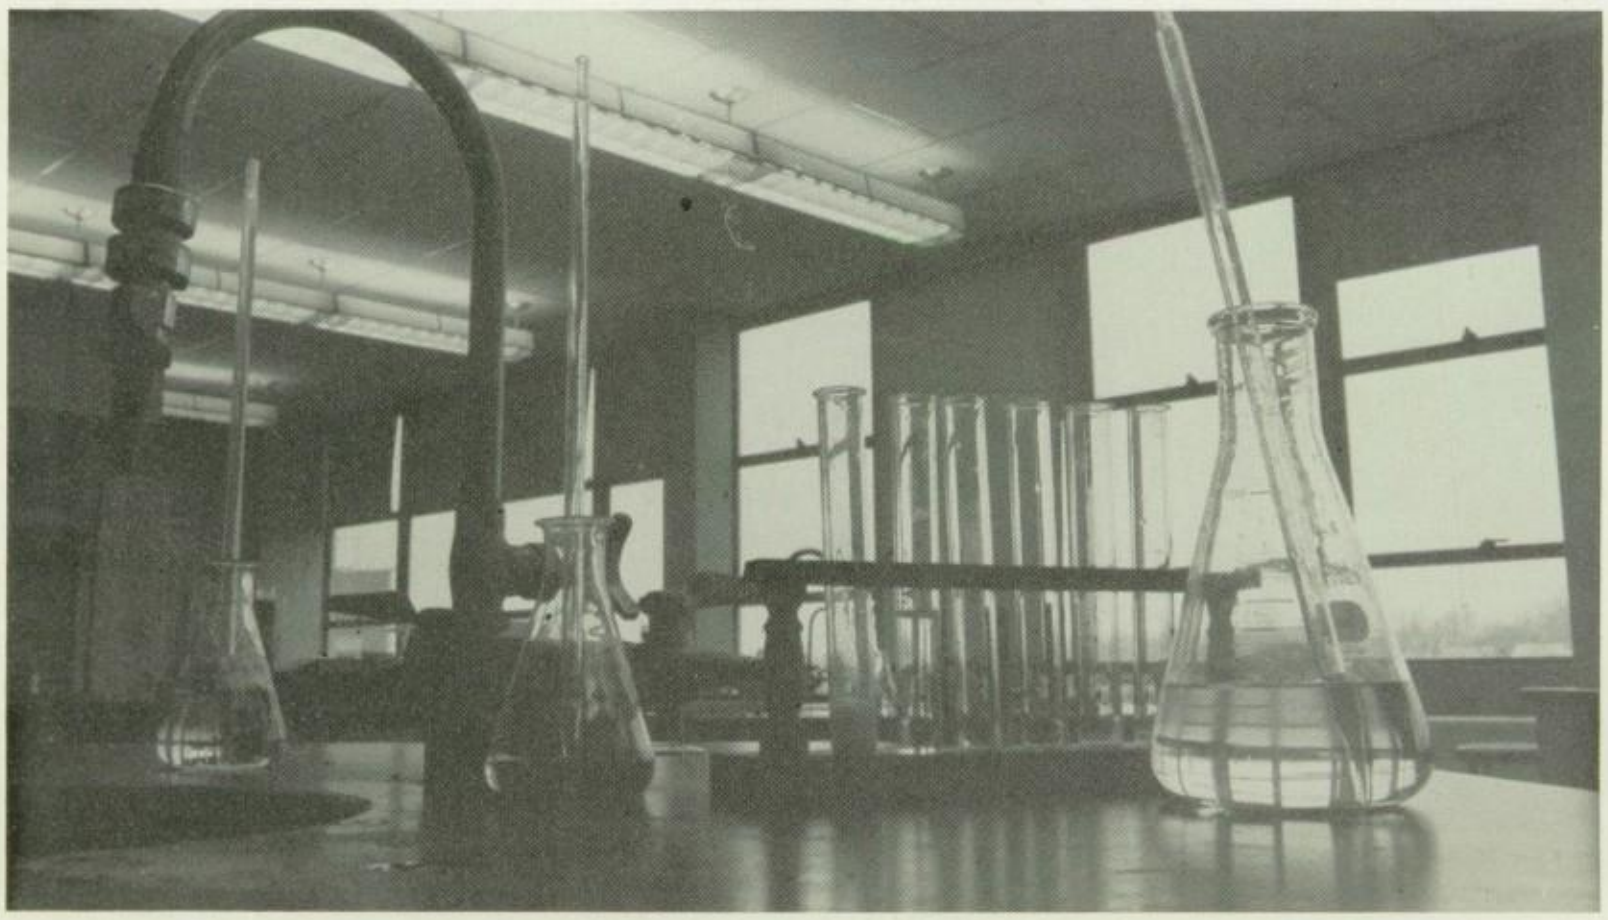
No, this doesn't mean that the school will only have math and science classes, but Ballou will contain a school of math and science within the present school curriculum.

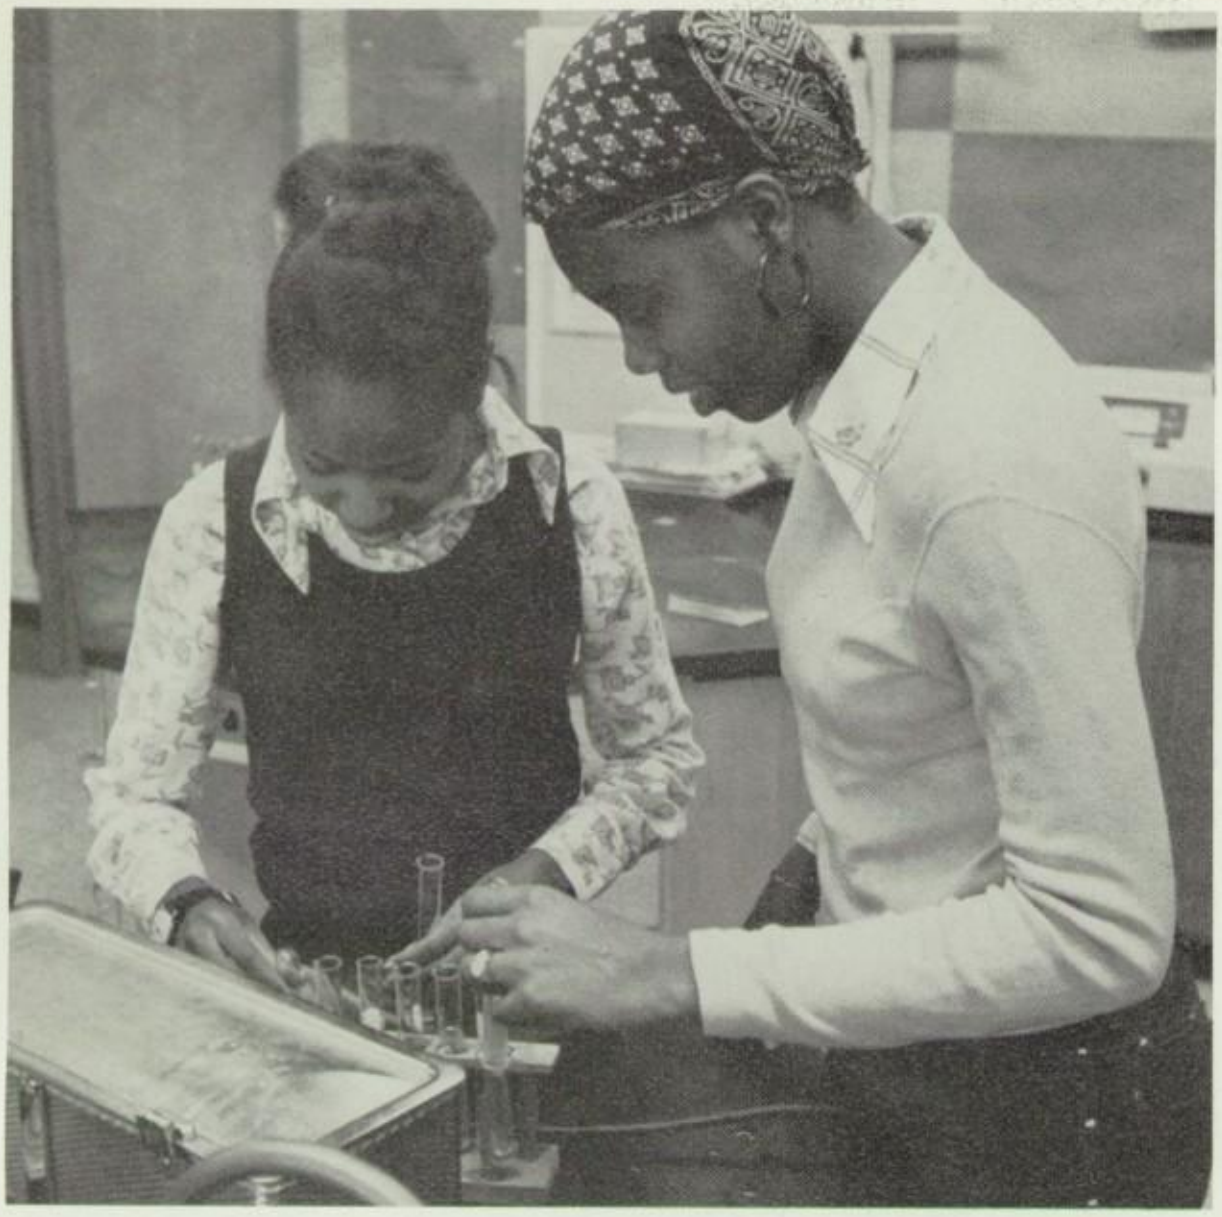
An added reason for this program is to strengthen and broaden Ballou's curriculum in these areas and to give students throughout the D.C. school system a chance to specialize in these courses.

A special group of ninth graders will enter the school in September. They will be the first students to enter the math-science program in the District.

Ballou already has strong science and mathematics departments under science chairman Robert Royster and mathematics chairman Marsha Forney.







Donna Williams and Christine Dennis work on an experiment. Watch out class . . . BOOM!

Mr. Royster demonstrates to the class how to use the microscope.

Vanessa Nance shows how much fun it is to type.

Ballou is Not All Fun and Games

Come now girls stop all the erasing and type up a storm.

Janice Roberts, Saundra Anderson, Tonya Hambrick (left to right) are some of the many students who work in the school bank. Ballou's Banker Mrs. Catherine Cooper is second from the left.

Mrs. B. Birchette teaches this special class entitled (COE) Cooperative Education Class. Students in this class attend school half day and have an office job the other half.

DPTP–Largest of it's kind in the city

Data Processing students work consistently to improve their skills.

The Data Processing Training Project was founded in 1970. It was created through the efforts of the Anacostia area board. Since September 1973 the DPTP has been funded by the D.C. Public School System.

Since the founding, its main objectives have been to, (a) develop curricula that can be taught in schools similar to Ballou, (b) develop curricula that provide our students with marketable skills in data processing and, (c) assist our students in obtaining meaningful data processing jobs.

The DPTP now offers two courses in its curricula. One course is entitled Job Oriented Data Processing. This course provides students with training in COBOL and FORTREN programming, key punching operation and other related Data Processing areas, and advanced programming. This course is open to senior students who took the first course and specialized in programming. Students are taught ADVANCE FORTRAN and COBOL and how to generate their own job cards. Students are also taught advance programming concepts.

During the last part of the course each student also gets a chance to specialize in an area of his or her own choosing. This course is taught two periods a day, and is offered to 11th and 12th grade students.

Our 74-75 Yearbook Staff has been working hard in order to make this yearbook a great success.

Yearbook staff works to meet deadline.

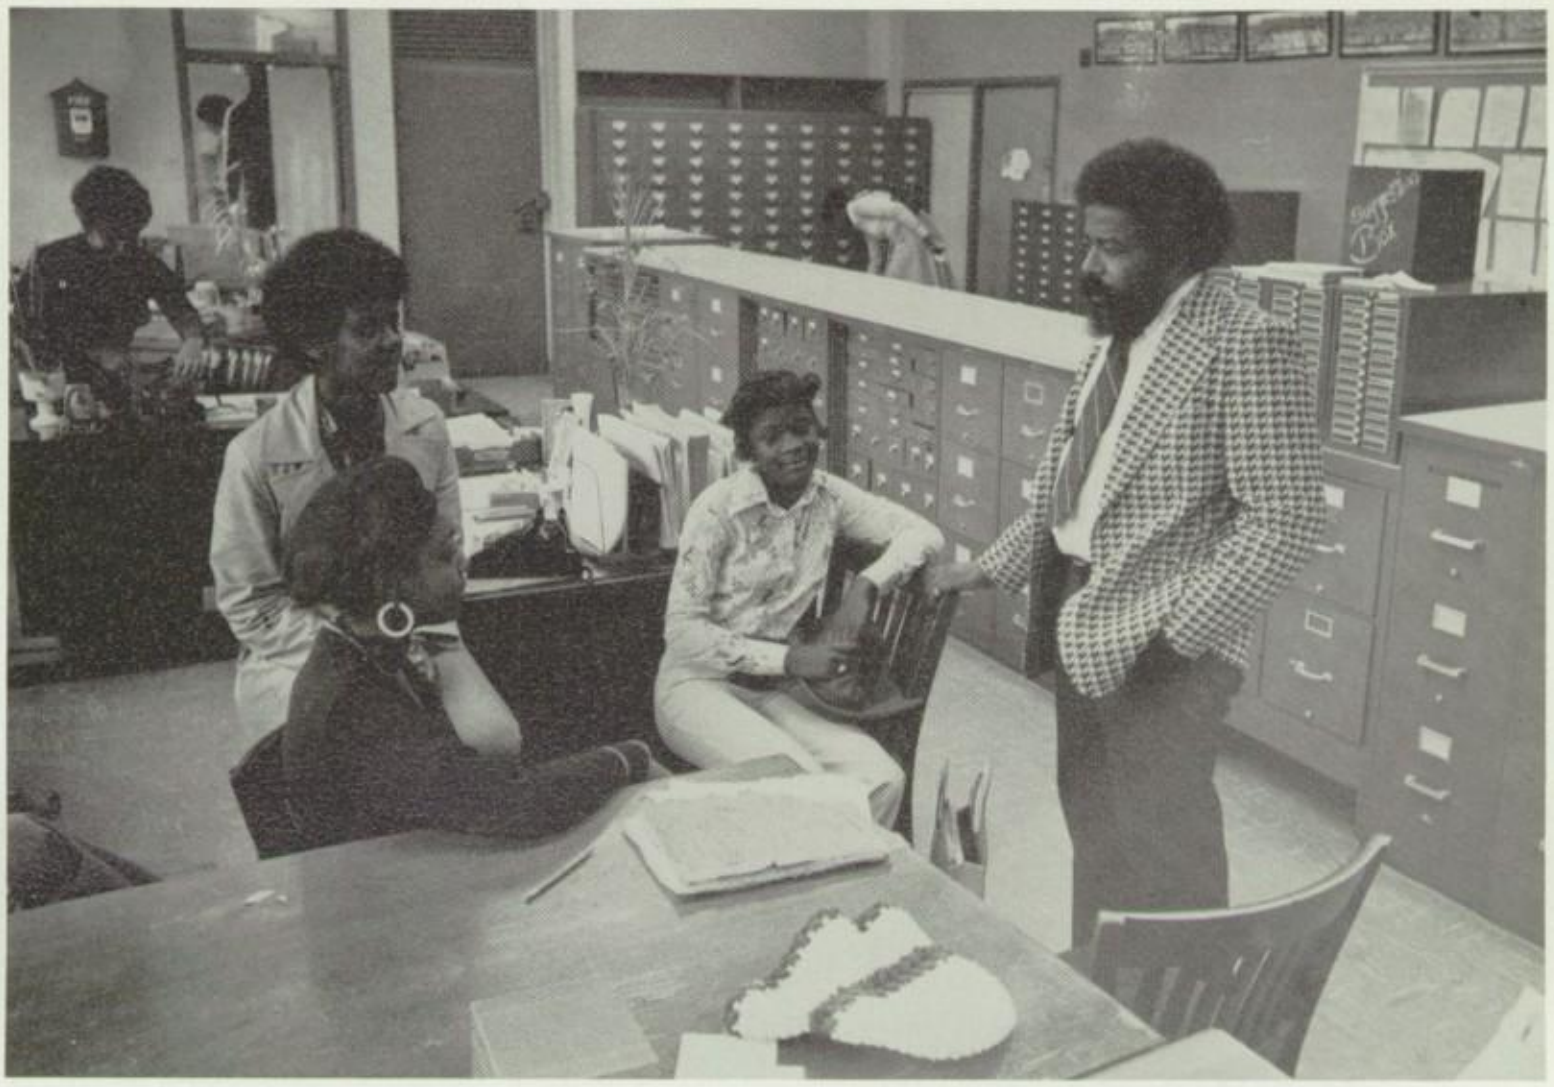
A closer look on what's happening with the yearbook staff.

Ms. Lerch's English class listens attentively as she explains the day's assigment.

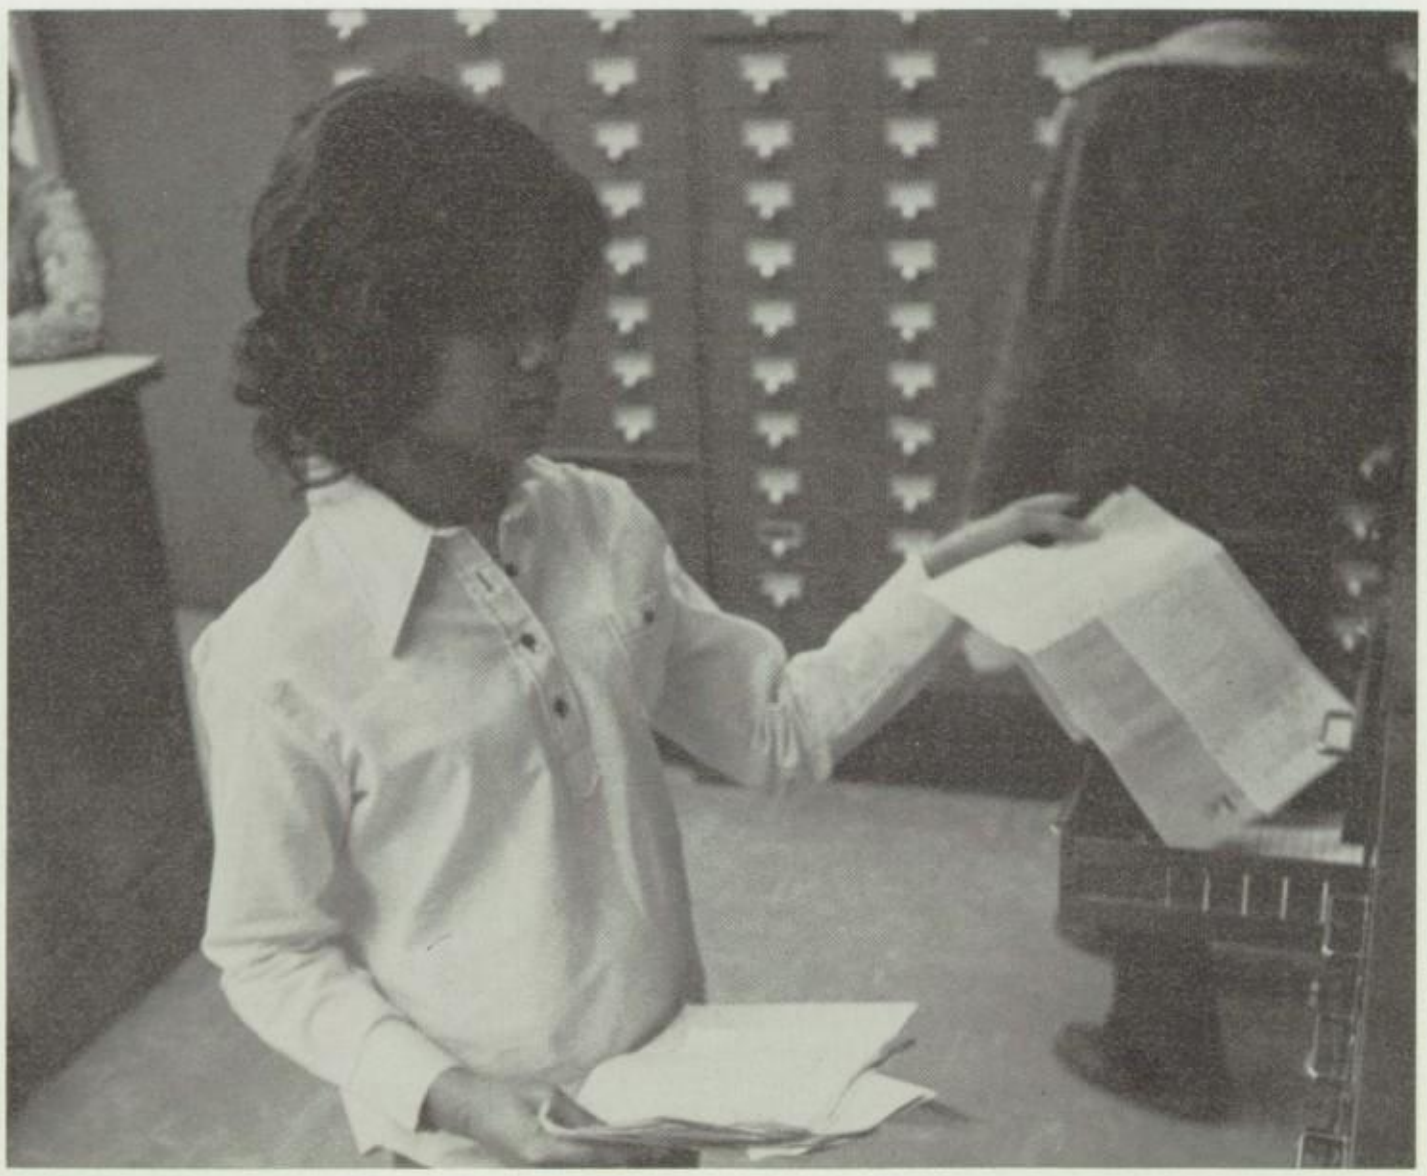
The English department curriculum consists of a variety of courses including acting, public speaking and the Title III program. The department anticipates changes in the coming year aimed at strengthening the total program.

We were fortunate here at Ballou to have such an efficient staff of office assistants. They worked very hard at their work and their instructors were pleased.

Elydia Lyles carefully looks through papers, as she goes about her daily work.



Dr. Pierce chats with office assistance aides Denise Brown, Gwen Kirven, and Denise Dodson.



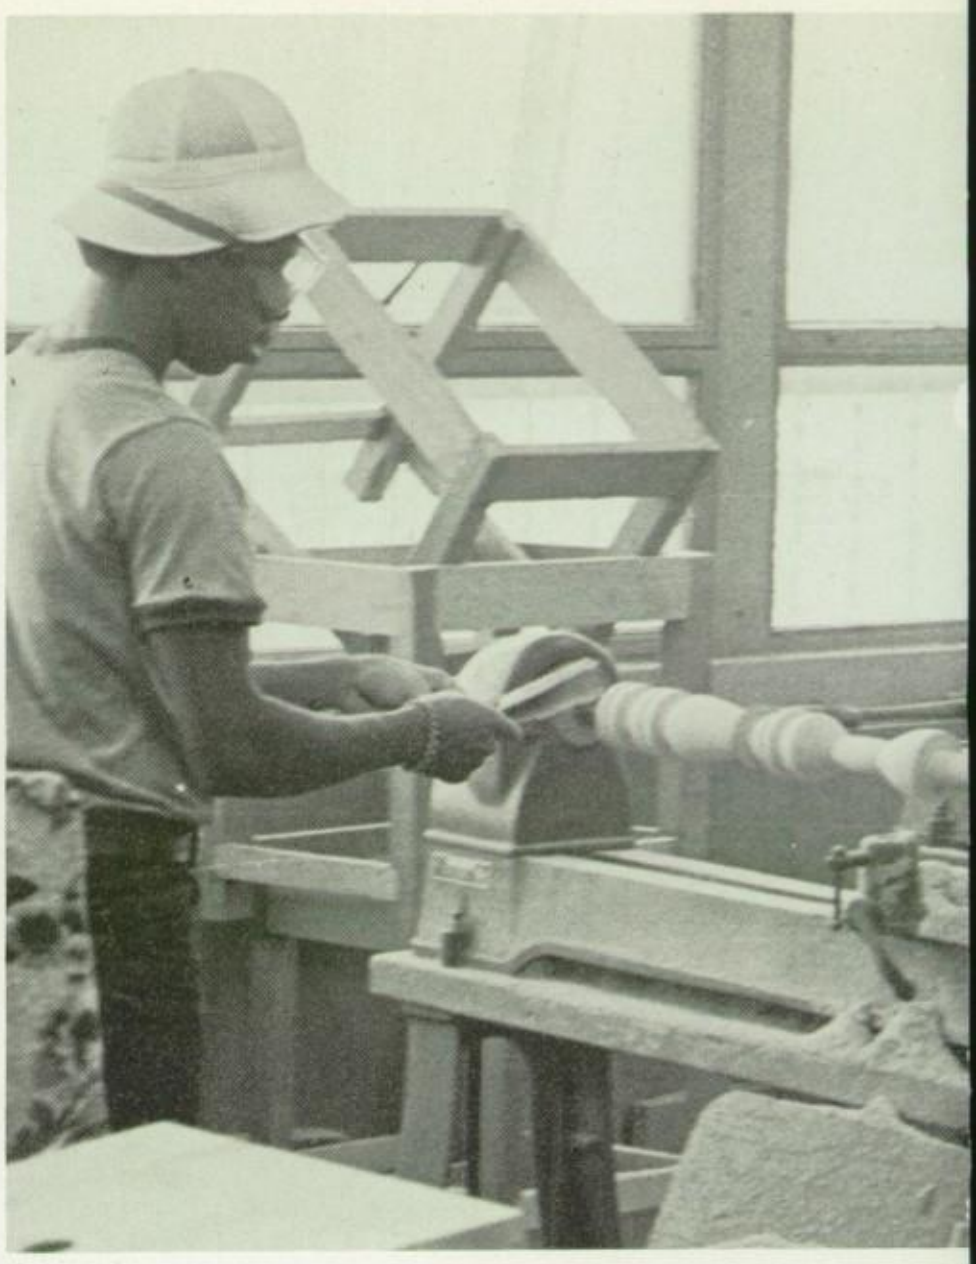
Debra Tunstall places correspondence into teacher mailboxes.

Music, Home Economics Jewelry Making and Woodwork Balance Ballou's Curriculum.

During the past two years, Mr. Paul Daniels developed the concert band, a marching band, and a rock group out of the Ballou instrumental music program.

The concert band visited area elementary schools; while the marching band, along with the majorettes, participated in the homecoming parade and other community parades.

All members of each band group received new uniforms this year, which added that extra zing to the group.



Woodwork is only one of the many vocational courses offered at Ballou.

Band members listen attentively to Mr. Daniels.

Station B.A.L.L.O.U. on the Air

This year, we were fortunate to have put together a school radio station B.A.L.L.O.U. under the direction of Mr. Thomas Dixon, a chemistry and physics teacher here at Ballou.

Many students were chosen to help with various aspects of setting up the station. Workers for the station included newscasters, sports commentators, and gossip reporters. Other students worked in the area of program directing, training and recruiting, program management, and technical direction.

The purpose of the station was to stimulate more students interest in school affairs and events.

Ballou Knights End Season With Even Score

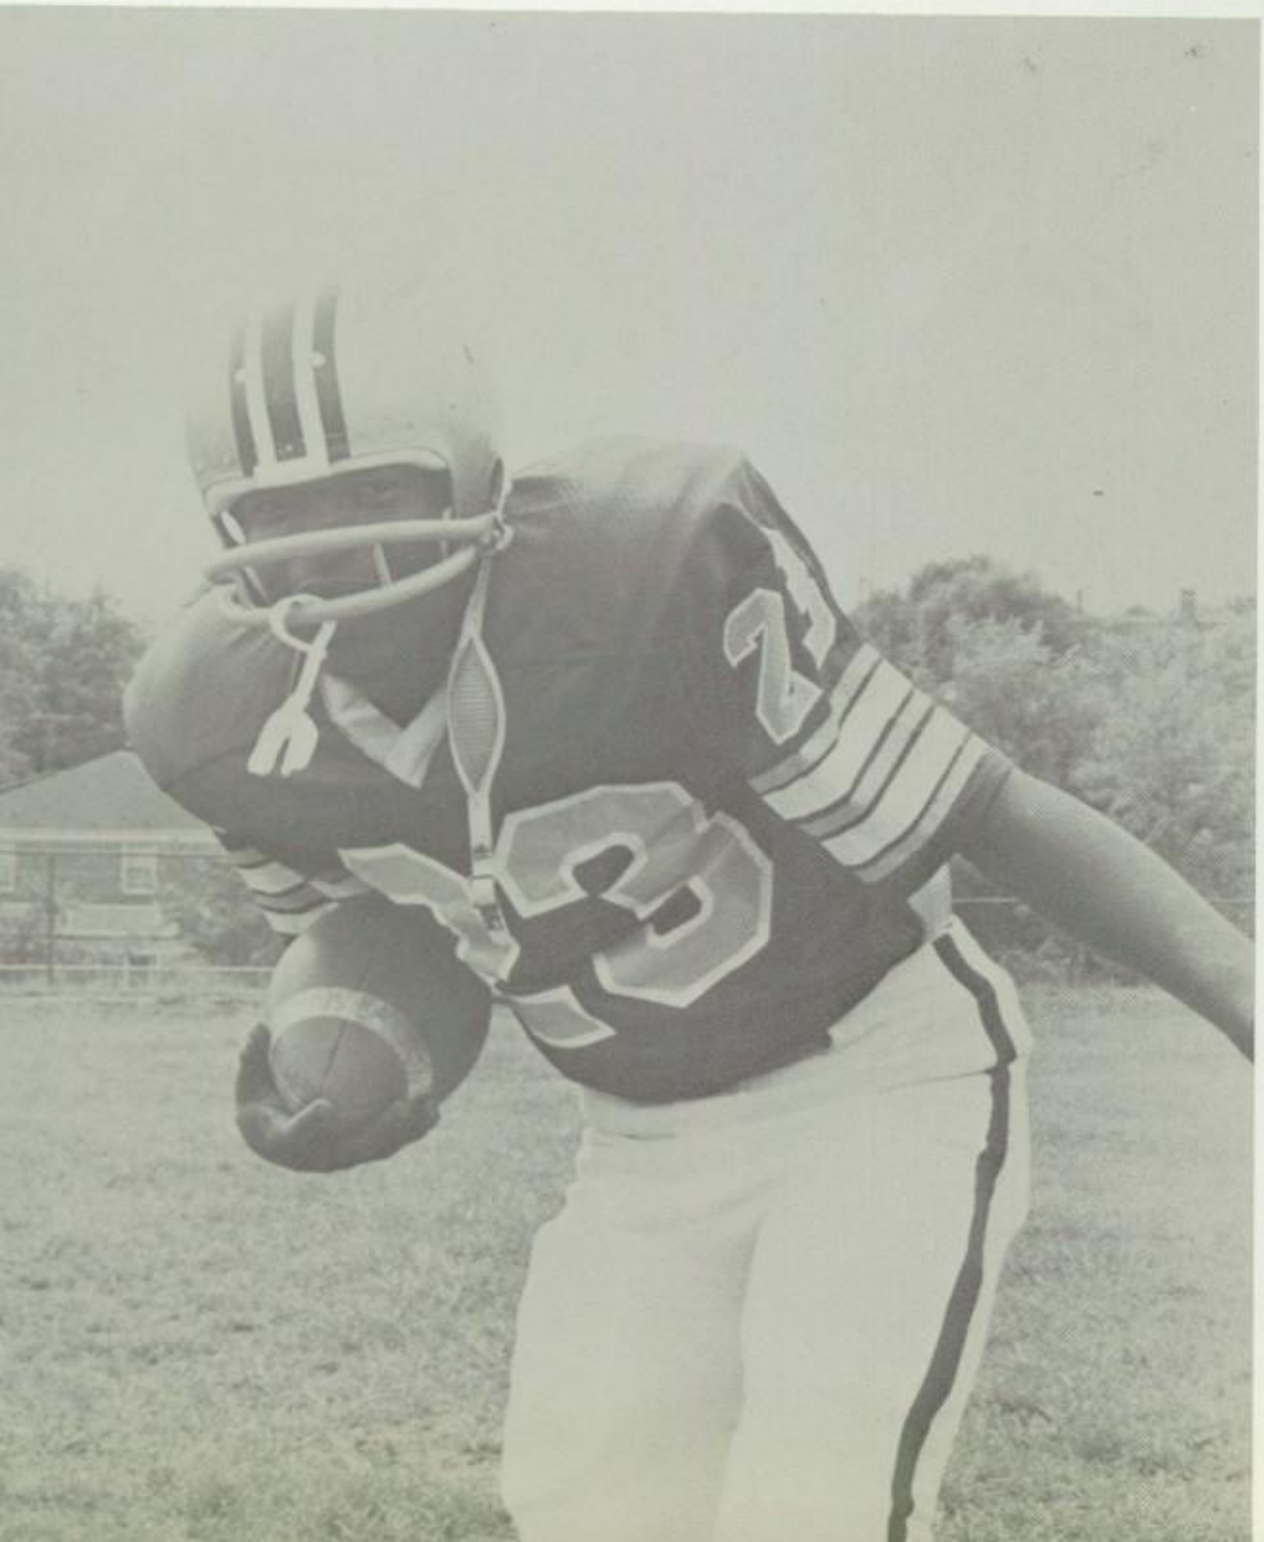
In the game between Ballou and Eastern, David Snow #76 moves in for the tackle.

FRANK W. BALLOU
A NAME IN SPORTS

For many years the name Campbell has been well known in Ballou sports. It all started with the Campbell brothers, and their basketball talent. Now it's Jerome Campbell, with his football talent.

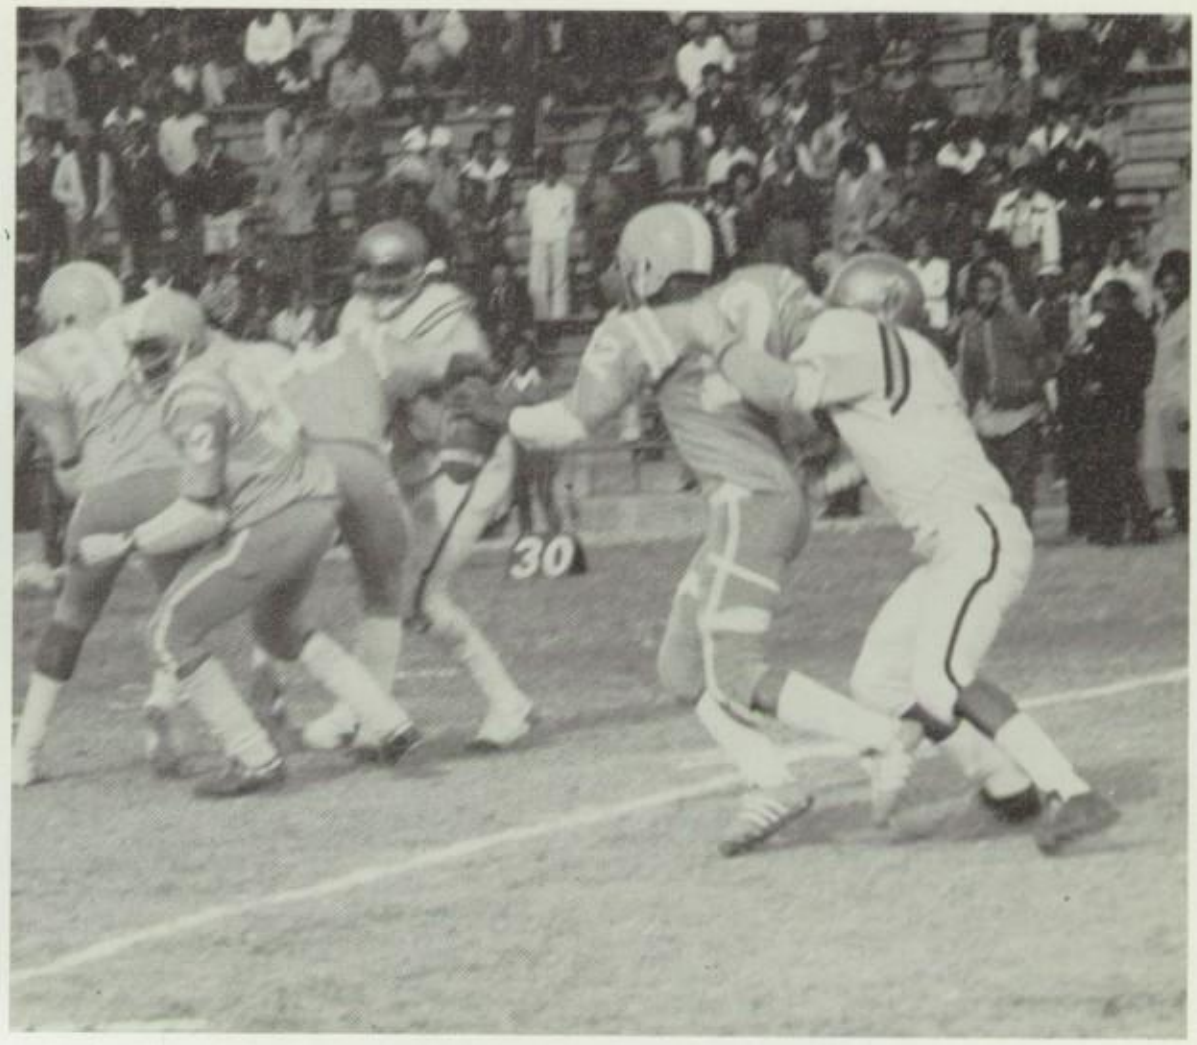
Jerome Campbell was all interhigh running back and line backer for two years. Jerome Campbell has averaged 5.2 yards a carry, while against Spingarn he gained 186 yards. Jerome Campbell is a great athlete and the Ballou family congratulates him for his success.



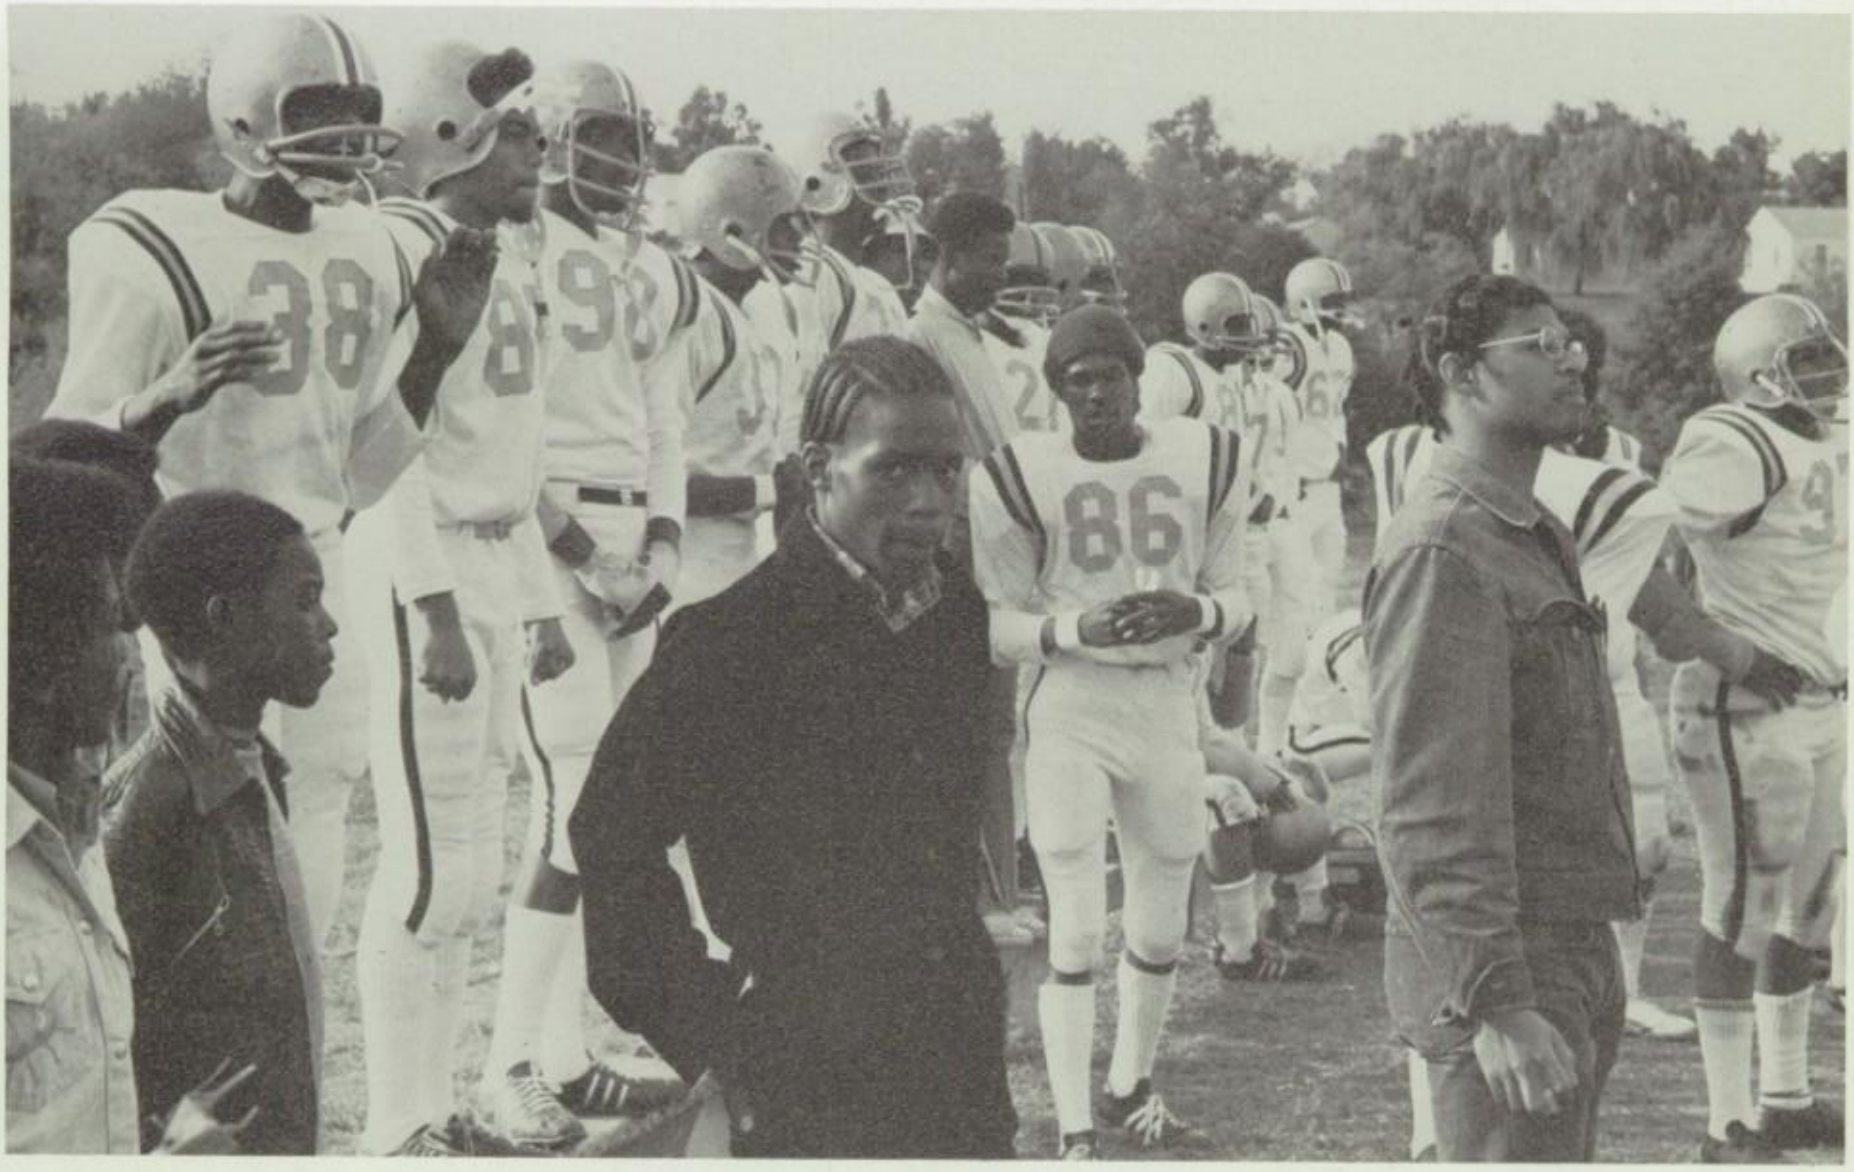
Jerome Campbell #23 profiling in a new uniform, all Inter-High East.

A couple of laps around the field will shape you boys up.

Ballou scores a quarterback sack.



George Brooks #33 tries hard to make a first down.



Ballou's defense looks on with hope, that the offense can do it.

BALLOU GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM TAKES THE CHAMPIONSHIP ONCE AGAIN!!

Ms. J (Gwen Jones) out jumps Woodson opponent.

(Left–right): Dr. Pierce, Gwendolyn Jones, Cynthia Chandler, Sheila Rush, Mrs. Oates, Lucinda Jones, Kim Briscoe, Windy Martin, Vanessa Thorton, Deborah Freeman, Frances Richardson, Darlene Gladden, Karen Fauntroy, Della Solomon, Robin Howard, Coreen Turner.

Gwen (Miss J.) Jones gets up off her feet.

"Take two", says Cynthia Chandler.

Sore ankle and all Denise Elliot (#33) gets up.

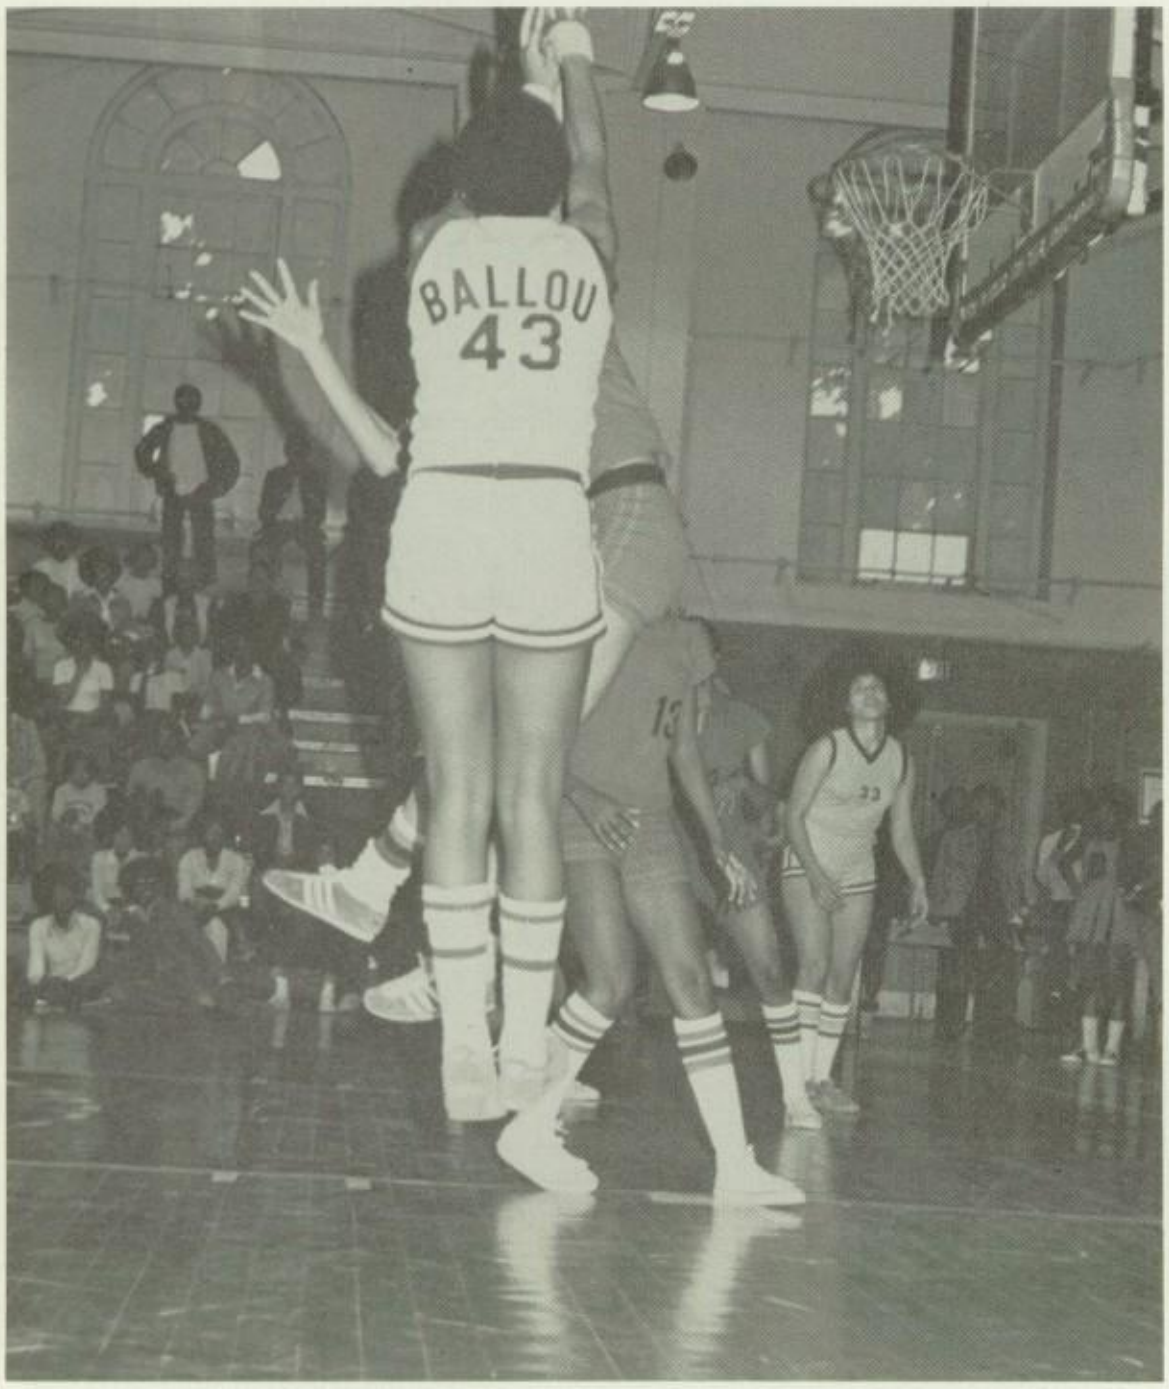
Although the Woodson Warriors defeated the Mighty Knights two times in regular season, they couldn't pull off the big one!

The first half of the game was very close with only two points scored in the whole first quarter. At half time the Worriors were leading the Knights by one point, but the Knights weren't to be disappointed. Ballou's starting line-up consisted of Cynthia Chandler, Gwen (Miss J) Jones, Lucinda Jones, Vanessa Thornton, and Wendy Martin.

Gwen (Miss J) Jones was high point for Ballou by scoring 26 points. Denise Elliot was a regular starter, but after hurting her ankle, there was some doubt about her playing in the championship game. However she came in after half time and scored the first two points of the third quarter to help the Knights win 50-46.

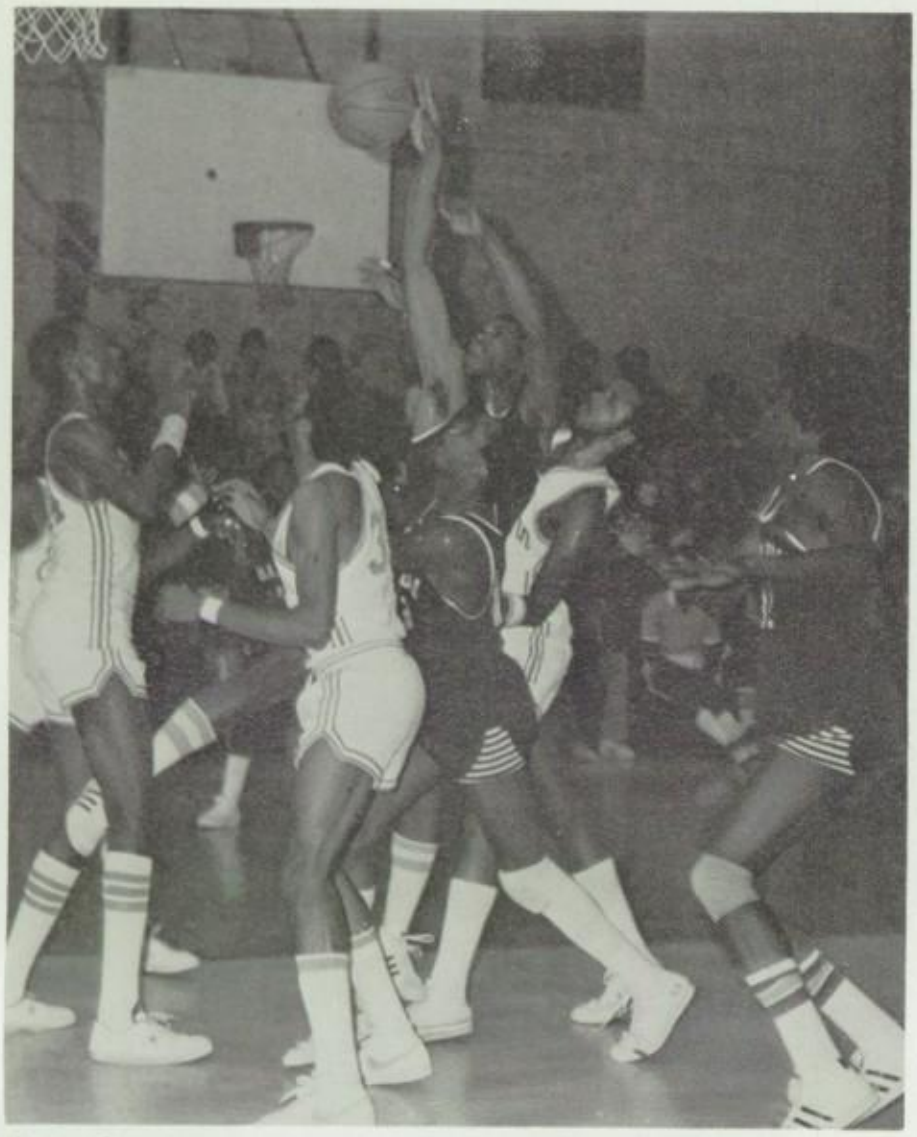
Being No.1 last year enable the Mighty Knights to be invited to the Christmas Tournament. The Ballou Team was the only team in the interhigh competion to hold the title three times. Ballou went to the Christmas Tournament and won the title from Holy Name Academy.

Ballou's Number One Girls in Action



Gwen (Miss J) Jones gets ready to show her razzle, dazzle moves against Woodson Worriors, as Cynthia Chandler trails.

Knights take it all the way to the Playoffs.



Larry Royster scores another point, as Ballou students wait at the edge of their seat.

Ballou Boys Basketball Team has really been trying hard. They have gone to the interhigh playoffs two times in a row. This year the boys went to the playoffs, and had to settle for 4th place.

There are two promising athletes on Ballou's Basketball Team—Dorian (Chick) Dent, and Gregory (Skip) Wise. Dorian Dent, 6'8" center for Ballou, averaged six block shots, 17 points, and 17 rebounds per game with a game high of 26 points against McKinley in the playoff game.

Greg (Skip) Wise, 6'2" guard, averaged 4 block shots, 18.3 points, 11 rebounds, per game and a game high of 24 points against Western and Phelps. Wise is a remarkable athlete with the ability to jump 6'3" and to excite the crowd with his A.B.A. moves.

James Short gives one more example of how to take it away and make another score.

Look out Ramblers our Knights are on their toes especially Gregory Wise.

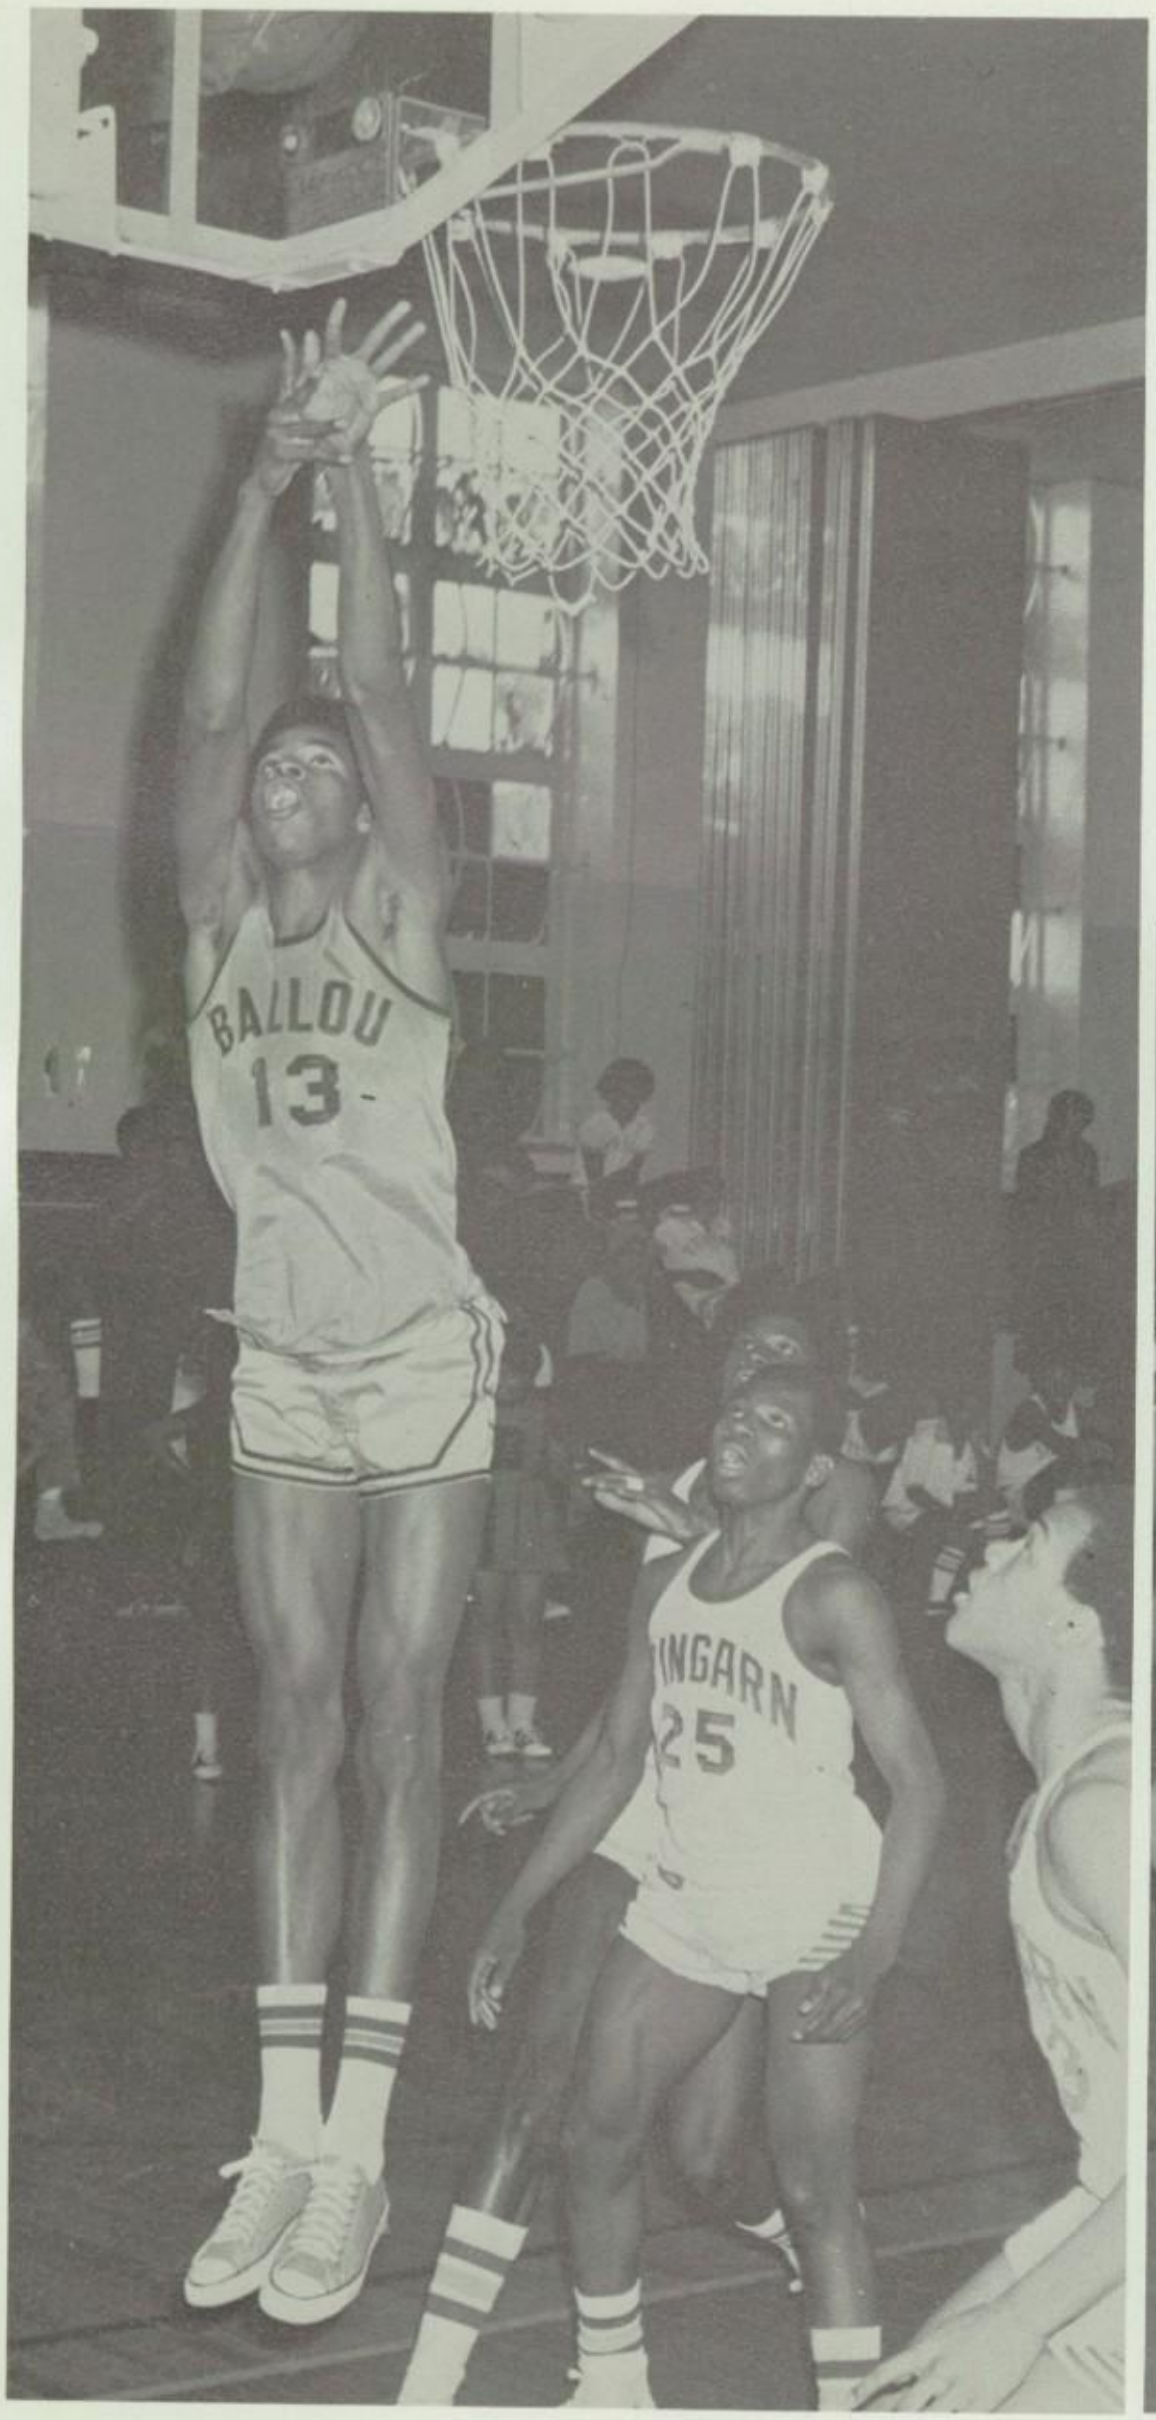
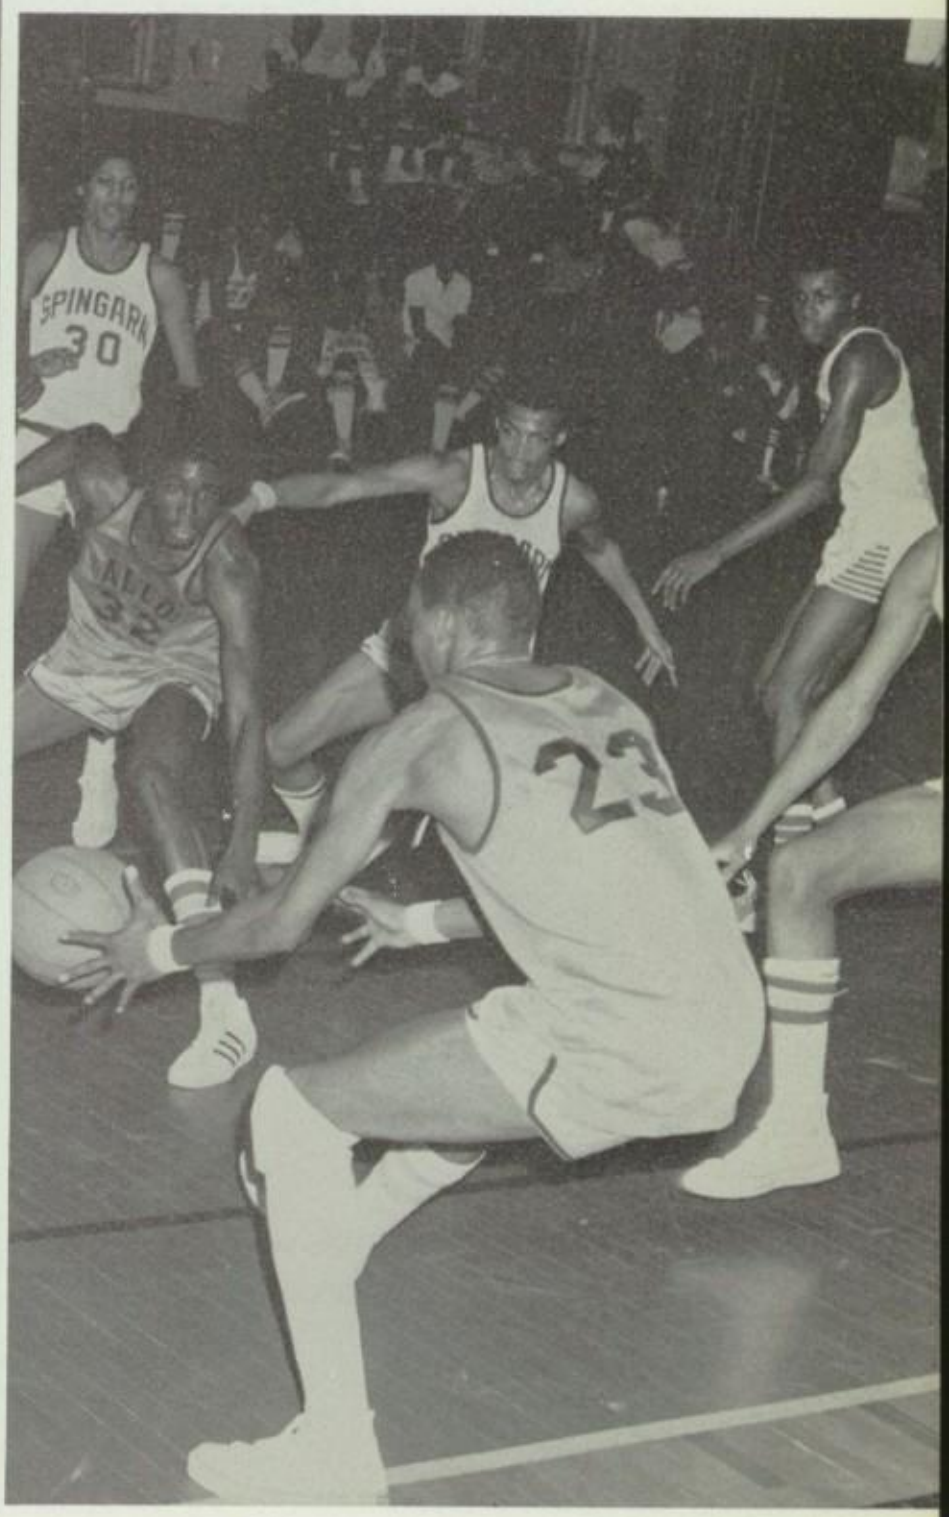
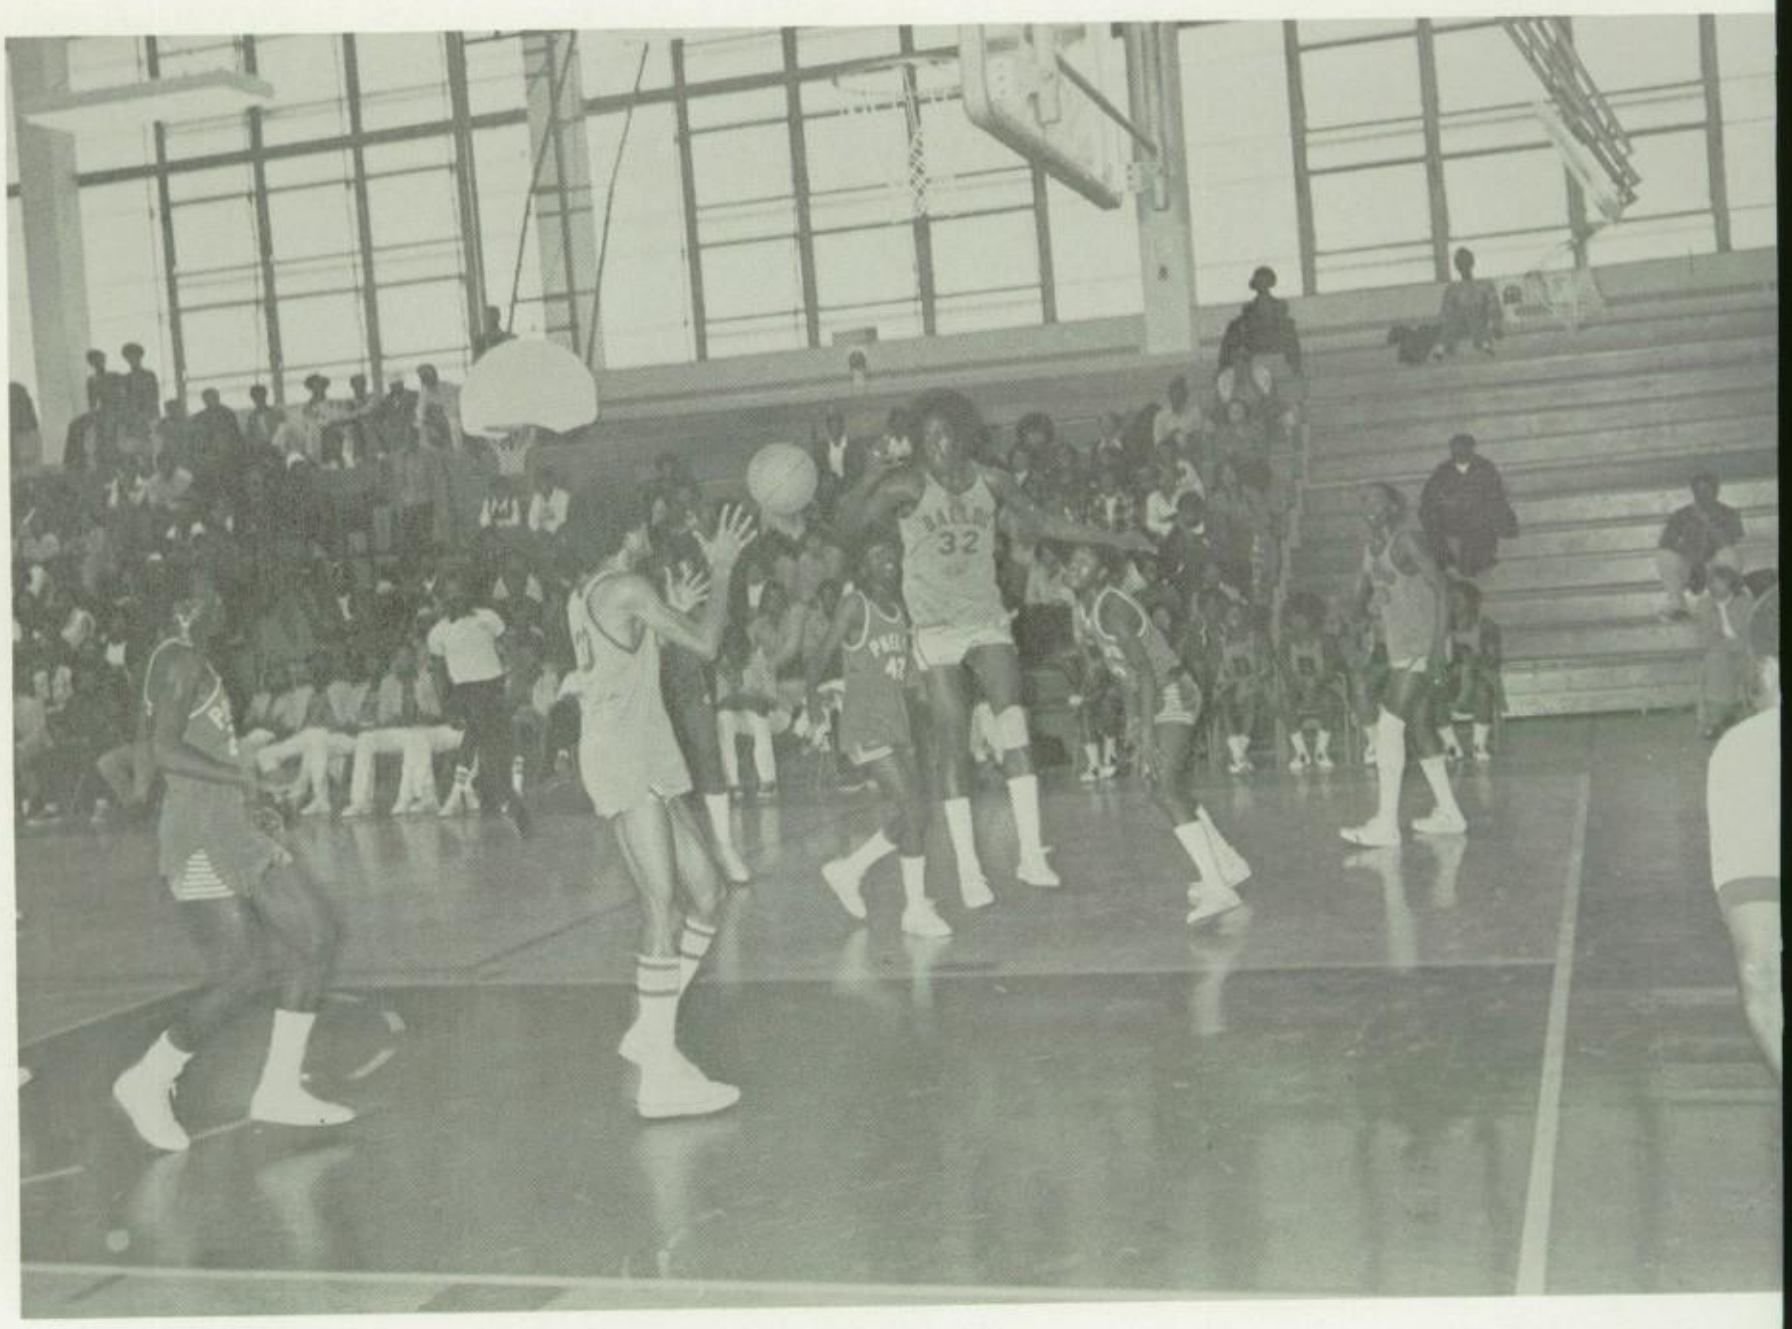
Ballou Knights are on the ball!



Spingarn's number 25 is amazed at Dorian Dent's shooting.

Eugene Prince and Linwood Parker handle something Spingarn can not, the ball.





Eugene Prince throws winning pass to Joseph Proctor, who scores against Phelps.

Lindwood Parker foils scoring attempt by Phelps.

Gregory Wise does his thing while everyone else takes notes.

Track Teams Lack Support of Student Body

Although Ballou has one of the most highly rated track teams in the city, it gets very little recognition from the student body. With Miss Johnson as the coach of the girl's team and Elva Jackson as captain, the girl's track team just couldn't lose. Ballou has two city record holders, Donna Williams, mile runner, and Antoinette Butler, first place discus thrower. In the East-west cross country championship Ballou finished second.

Ballou girl's track team also set a record in the hurdles. We have three girls on the team that should get special recognition because they placed in the top ten at the interhigh competition. Their names are Alva Jackson, Donna Williams, and Ella Stubbs. Congratulations to these students.

Alva Jackson runs ahead.

Joseph Morris, tired but keeps going

Felicia Rice & Inga Harris comes in.

In the area of the boy's track team, Rodney Garland made all-met this year, while Edward Walker came in third place in the cross country meet. Although Dennis Cooper didn't make all-met, Coach Carl Keels believes that Dennis is one of the best runners on the team.

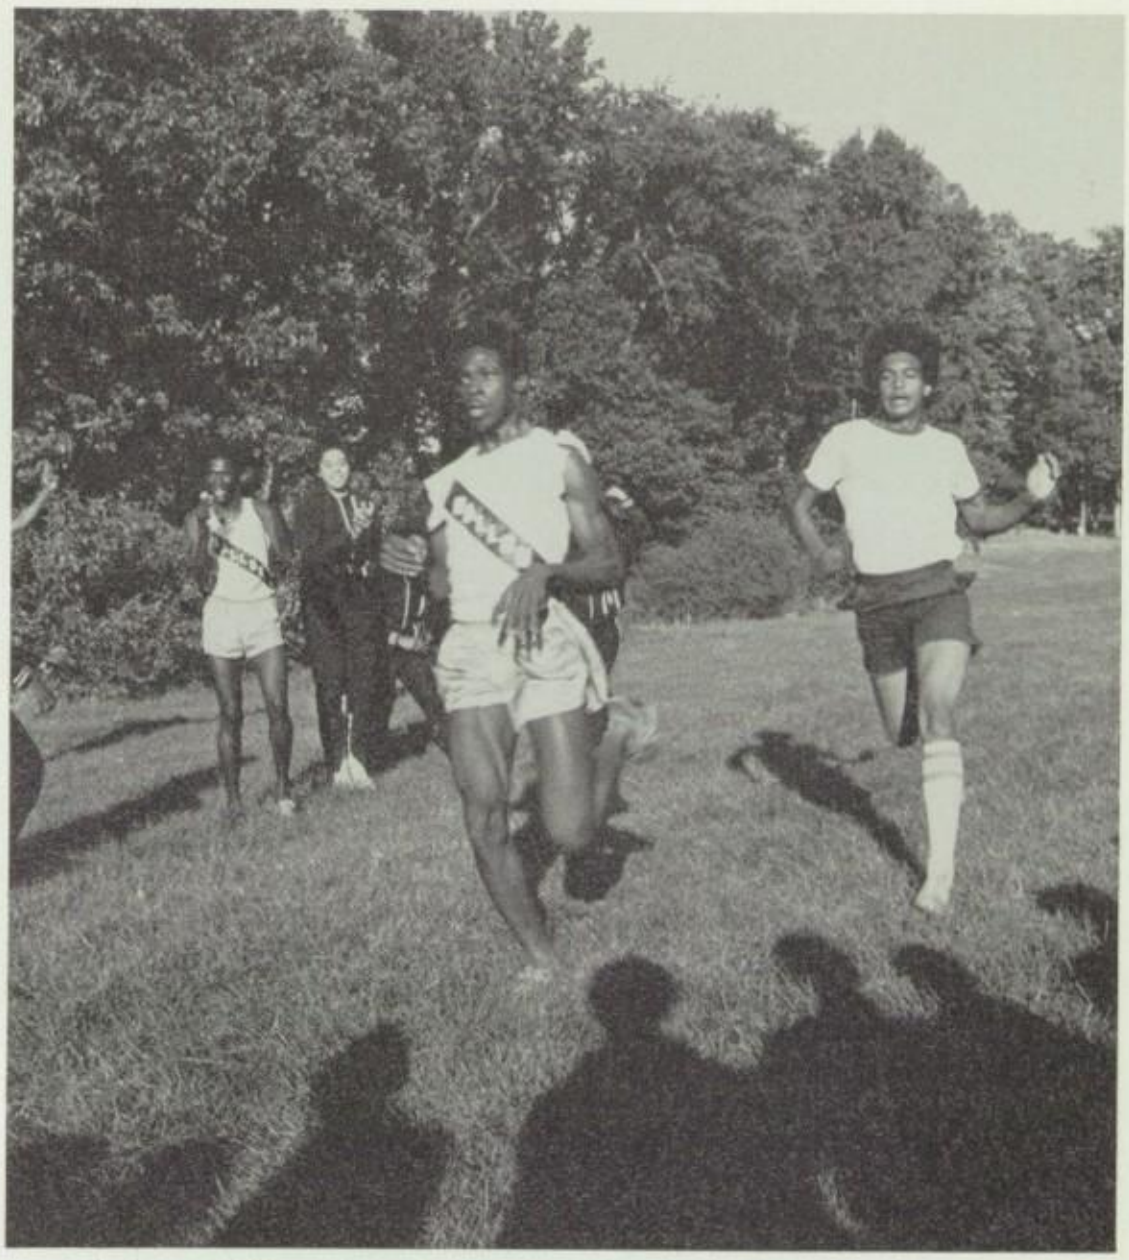
Ballou Knights prepare for one of their breathtaking meets.

Ballou's Track Teams Run It All The Way

Members of the track team look on as the race begins.

"I can't win with plain track men," said Mr. Keels, coach for the male indoor track team. "I want the best and nothing less than the championship." Dennis Cooper (captain), and Robin Christian (co-captain) tried hard to lead the team to a first place trophy.

Some track superstars, males and females, were Alva Jackson, Dennis Cooper, Antoinette Butler, Robbin Christian, Donna Williams, Edward Walker, Ella Stubbs, Rodney Garland and Wendy Martin.



Antwone Hunt breathes heavily after he crosses the finish.

Knights get set to go.

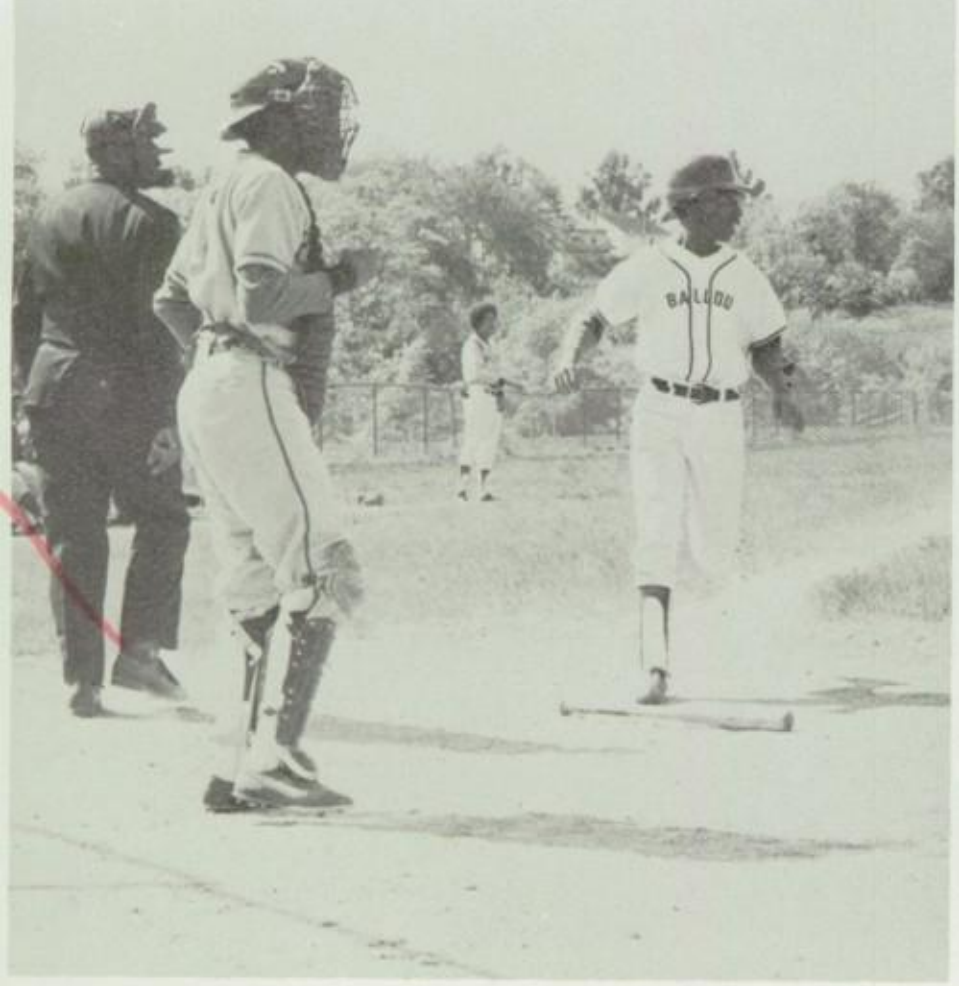
Look at Ella Stubbs move with the feet.

On the bridge, Stanley Baisey and other Ballou Knights are moving fast.

We can tell the Ballou Knights are No. 1 look at our man go.

Baseball Team Adds Finishing Touch To Ballou's Sports

Alfred Banks listens attentively as fellow knights map strategy.



Ballou Knight makes it home as he takes notice of where the ball is.

Opposing team's batter strikes one in Ballou's favor.

73-74 baseball team carried over a dynamite '75 season with help of seniors Ricardo Ramsey, Michael Rice, and Fred Smith.

Mighty Knights ready to put the other team out, and go all the way to win.

The green Waves of Spingarn are all fired up to go against the Ballou Knights.

First Year Tennis Coach Pearson Moves '75 Tennis Team to Inter-high Championship

Though small in membership (just seven players), the tennis team proved big in power. Mr. Lamar Pearson, mindful of their potential, coached the team to its first inter-high championship tournament. The team won all but two matches during the season and went on to play in the city tournament. There they settled for 2nd place, but only after a dynamite performance. They let McKinley, the leading contender, squeak by with one point. Ballou barely escaped victory with a 3-4 defeat to McKinley.

Members of the team include: Tyrone Holland (captain), Ellis Barmore, Myron Davis, Craig Horton, Joseph Ragland, Owen Robinson, and James Short.

After beating Wilson High at East Potomac, team members display victory sign. Ballou won with the help of Tyrone Holland, Joe Ragland, James Short, Craig Horton, Owen Robinson, and Myron Davis.

Confident of a victory, Tyrone Holland, Myron Davis, Ellis Barmore, Joe Ragland, and James Short pose before leaving for the play-off games.

At the Inter-high Championship match, Tyrone Holland displays 2nd place trophy. At the extreme right is D.C. athletic director, A. Thornton.

OUTSTANDING COACH

Wanda Oates, the coach of the 74-75 Girls Basketball Team, deserves the finest recognition that any coach could receive. She coached her team to two year straight victories in the city championship.

Clubs

The school day extends far after 3:00 for many students as well as faculty members. The chess club, intra-mural sports, the debate club and the student advisory committee are just a few of the many activities at Ballou. One of these activities was the Thanksgiving Drive. Each homeroom had to make a Thanksgiving basket in order to help with the Thanksgiving drive. The student council gave the basket to the needy families in the Ballou community. The best basket from all of the homerooms were selected and the winning homeroom was 203-4.

Not only was the student council pulling things over, but the senior class was doing it up also. The senior class sponsored the homecoming activities and also they sponsored the homecoming dance.

Varsity Basketball Team

The Ballou "It's Academic" Team started its preparation for the quiz show in October 1974. The participants came to school one hour early and worked everyday from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and at least one afternoon per weekend in order to prepare for the big test. In the taped show, Ballou competed against Largo High School and St. Anthony's Academy. Ballou came in second with a score of 470. Largo won with a score of 605. St. Anthony's scored 155 pts. This "loss" was not so great; however, because 470 pts was more than twice the amount of points Ballou had scored when they won in the 1974 game. Ballou should be proud of the achievement of these students.

IT'S ACADEMIC CLUB

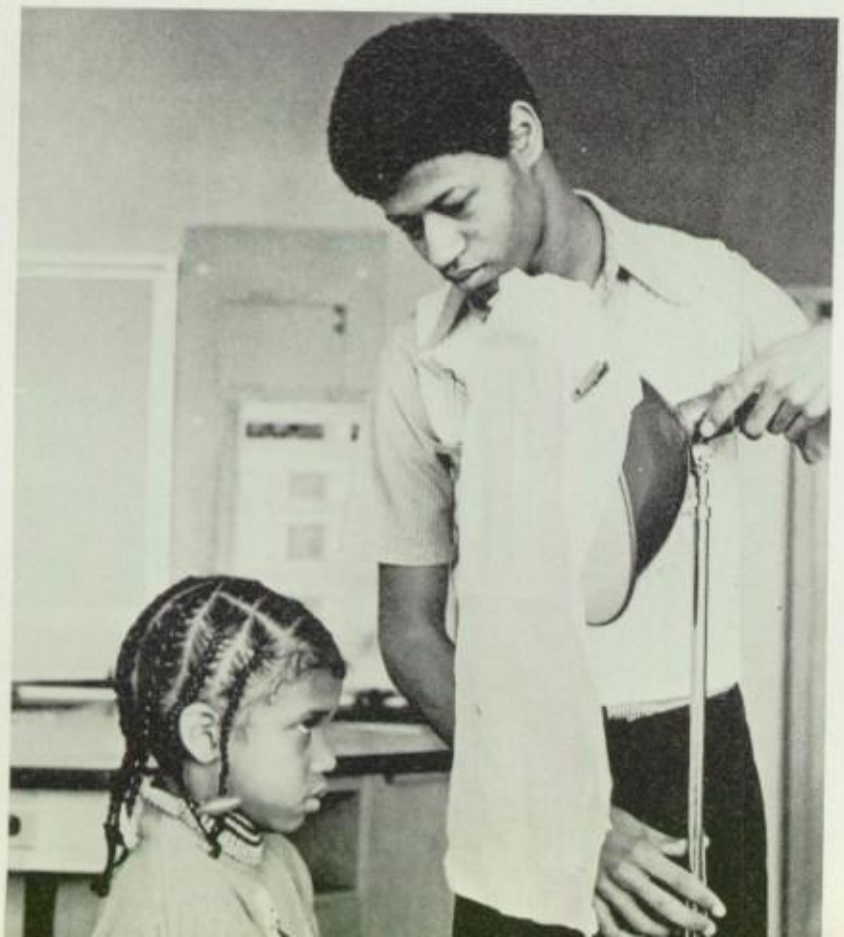
PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB



Terry Smith prepares to take portrait of youngster from the community.

The tennis team is shown here with last year's coach, Mr. James Ewers. Mr. Ewers has left Ballou in order to further his education. Mr. Lamar Pearson is now coach of the tennis team.

These days we know it's tough to find a good outfit that will hire someone who lacks only in experience.

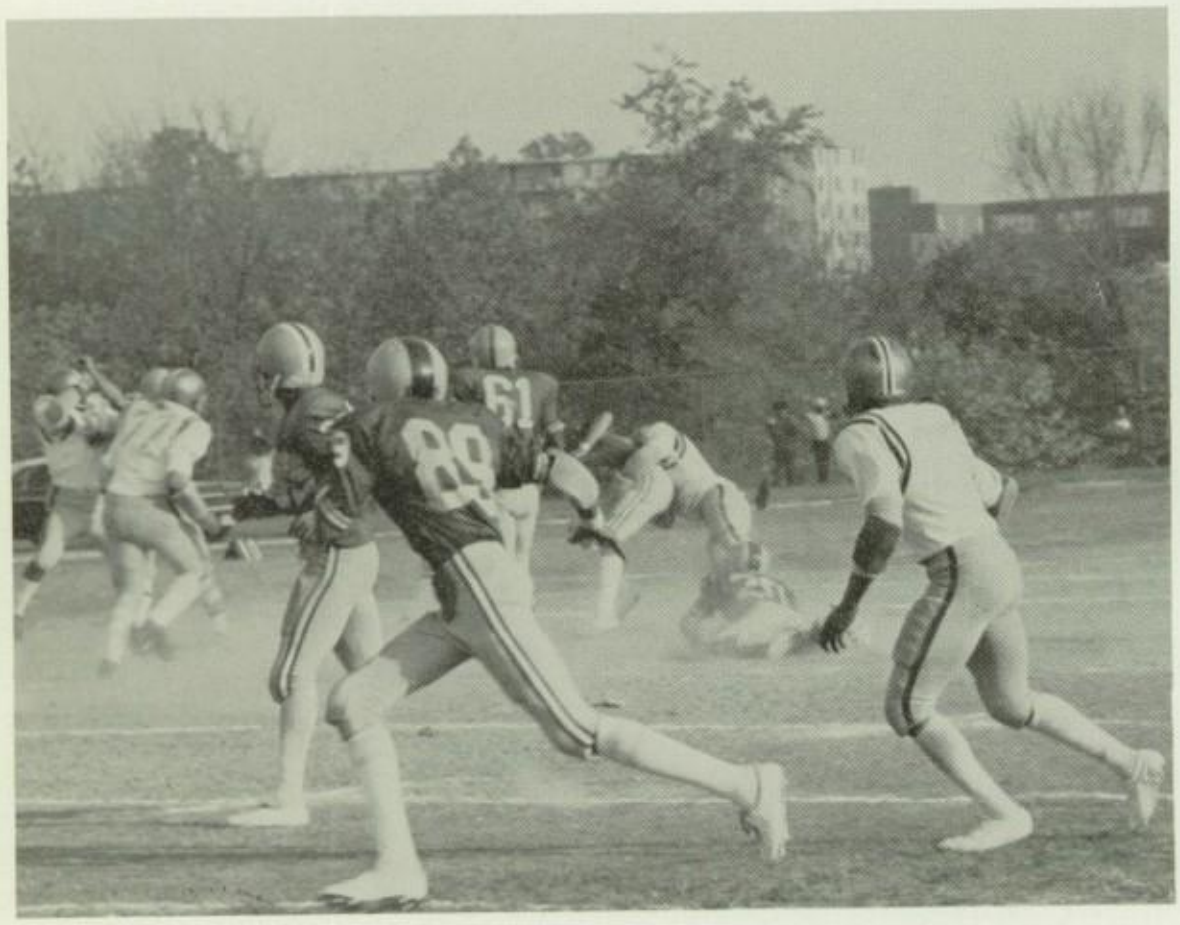
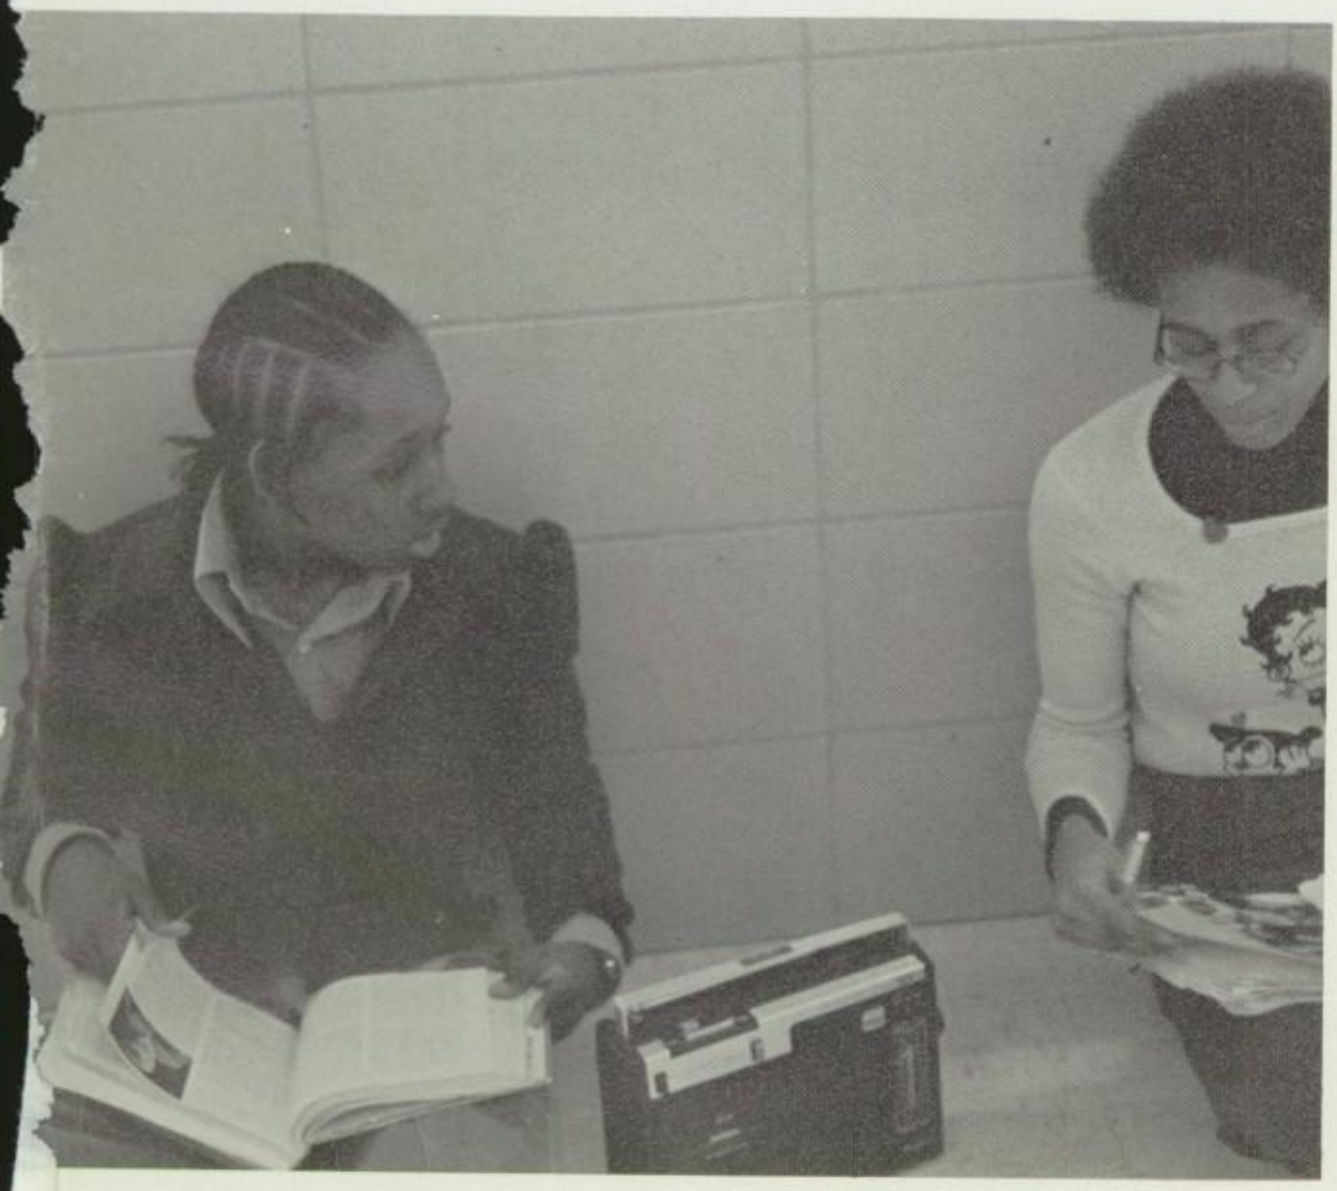
Let others cheer the winning man.
There's one I held worthwhile;
It is he who does the best he can,
Then loses with a smile.

Beaten he is, but not to stay.
Down with the rank and file;
That man will win some other day,
Who loses with a smile.





The class of 75 leaves Ballou with a smile and the fondest memories one class could behold. We will always remember the joyful, along with the painful experiences we have encountered while in Ballou. We will always remember, that this was where we grew. These were our finest years. Thank You Ballou.

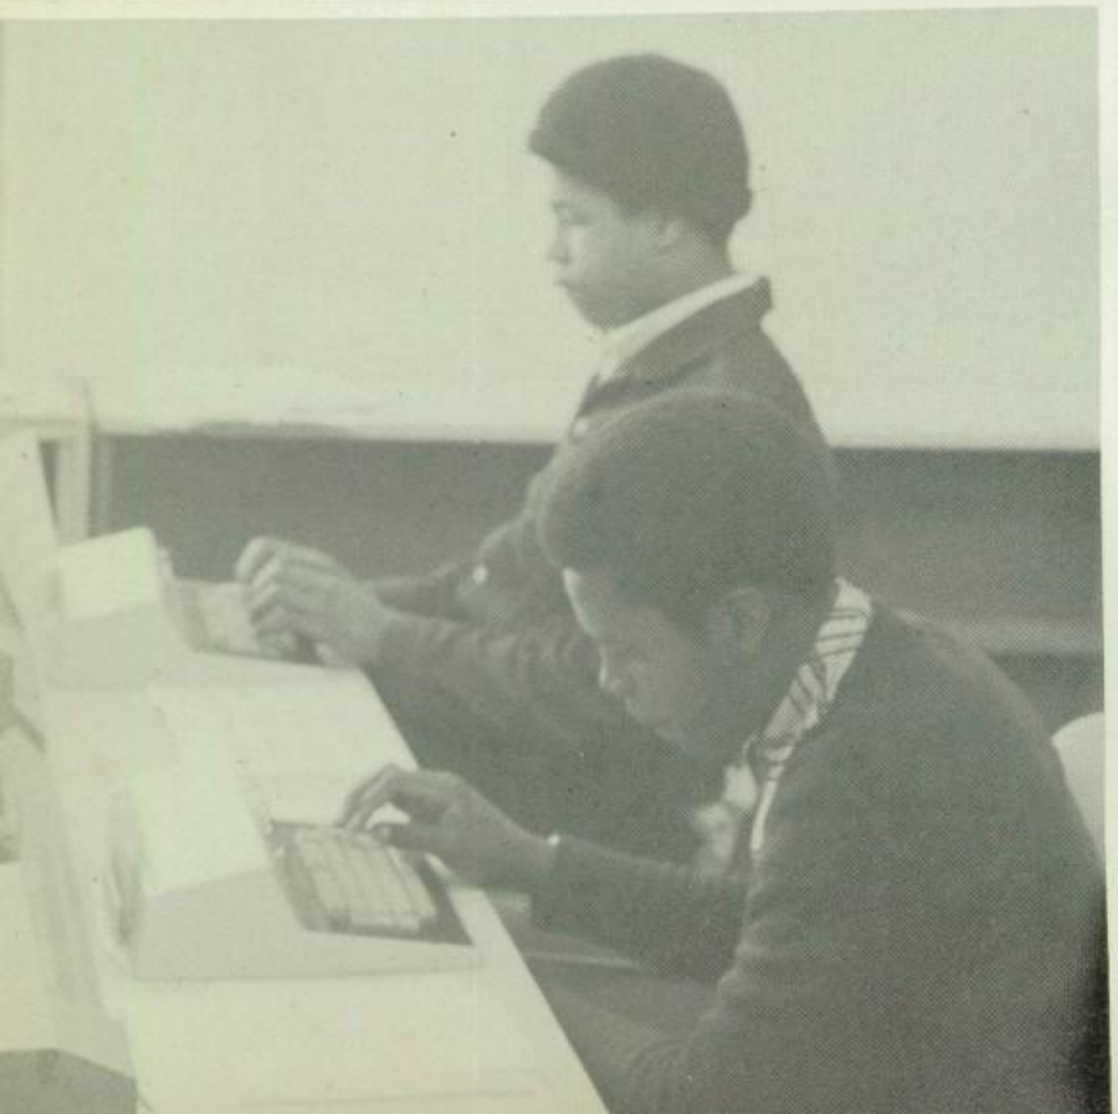
OUR ALMA MATER

B-a-l-l-o-u, school that we love;
Gold and blue your colors furled from above;

Bold and true we'll be knights who FIGHT
To hold your standards high in the sky over all.

Ever will you be in our memories
Never shall we change in our loyalties.

Your name-your fame, we'll spread near and far,
Ballou—our Alma Mater.



Ballou Jr. High
